SPANISH CARDINAL RECOMMENDS THAT CATHOLICS RECEIVE COMMUNION ON THE TONGUE

Lima, Peru, Jul 28, 2011 / 01:56 pm (CNA).-

Spanish Cardinal Antonio Canizares Llovera (current Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments) recently recommended that Catholics receive Communion on the tongue, while kneeling.

"It is to simply know that we are before God himself and that He came to us and that we are undeserving," the prefect of the Vatican's Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments said in an interview with CNA during his visit to Lima, Peru.

The cardinal's remarks came in response to a question on whether Catholics should receive Communion in the hand or on the tongue.

He recommended that Catholics "receive Communion on the tongue and while kneeling."

Receiving Communion in this way, the cardinal continued, "is the sign of adoration that needs to be recovered. I think the entire Church needs to receive Communion while kneeling."

"In fact," he added, "if one receives while standing, a genuflection or profound bow should be made, and this is not happening." "If we trivialize Communion, we trivialize everything, and we cannot lose a moment as important as that of receiving Communion, of recognizing the real presence of Christ there, of the God who is the love above all loves, as we sing in a hymn in Spanish."

In response to a question about the liturgical abuses that often occur, Cardinal Canizares said they must be "corrected, especially through proper formation: formation for seminarians, for priests, for catechists, for all the Christian faithful."

Such a formation should ensure that liturgical celebrations take place "in accord with the demands and dignity of the celebration, in accord with the norms of the Church, which is the only way we can authentically celebrate the Eucharist," he added.

"Bishops have a unique responsibility" in the task of liturgical formation and the correction of abuses, the cardinal said, "and we must not fail to fulfill it, because everything we do to ensure that the Eucharist is celebrated properly will ensure proper participation in the Eucharist."

THE COMMUNION RAIL

For centuries the ordinary manner of receiving Holy Communion in the Roman Catholic Church was on the tongue and on one's knees. Accordingly, all churches made provision for this by providing a suitable place to kneel. Communion rails as they were known delineated the Sanctuary from the rest of the Church. The Sanctuary is a sacred space reserved for the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The Communion rail is rightly understood in relation to the Altar of Sacrifice and it allows the faithful to receive the Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist devoutly and reverently.

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Two Masses will be celebrated on this Solemnity: at 8:00 a. m. and at 7:30 p.m. The evening Mass will be a Missa Cantata celebrated according to the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite. This is the more ancient usage of the Roman Rite celebrated universally throughout the world until 1962. The Ordinary Form (the Missal of Pope Paul VI -1969) and the Extraordinary Form (the Missal of Blessed John XXIII - 1962) have similar elements, but each has its own distinguishing characteristics. For example, each form has its own liturgical calendar and cycle of readings. The Ordinary Form has multiple Eucharistic Prayers but the Extraordinary Form uses the Roman Canon exclusively.

The Extraordinary Form of the Mass is the patrimony of the Western Church. This liturgy is sometimes called the 'Tridentine' Rite, after the Council of Trent in the sixteenth century. This title is misleading, because the Council of Trent did not invent the liturgy, which was even then already ancient. It is sometimes called the 'Traditional Latin Mass' as this Mass is always celebrated in the official language of the Church (i.e. Latin)

The Second Vatican Council declared, in relation to all liturgical rites approved at the time, that the Church "wishes to preserve them in the future and foster them in every way." (Sacrosanctum Concilium, #4) A new Roman Rite was promulgated after the Council by Pope Paul VI (Ordinary Form), which is now in general use. But the ancient Latin liturgy (Extraordinary Form) remains also in use, and fully approved by the Supreme Pontiff. It was during Vatican II that the 1962 edition of the Missale Romanum was published, which is the Missal still used today for the celebration of the 'Tridentine' Mass.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that: "The mystery of Christ is so unfathomably rich that it cannot be exhausted by its expression in any single liturgical tradition." (CCC, #1201) In the modern world, many Catholic today find it spiritually beneficial to recover contact with their heritage of worship. The Extraordinary fosters Catholic belief in the midst of the culture of death.

The liturgy of the ancient Roman Church emerged from the times of intense persecution and today, as Christians are more and more persecuted for their Catholic faith, they are attracted to the ancient Mass which helped to evangelize a world that has turned its back on Jesus Christ. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church succinctly says, "the liturgy itself generates cultures and shapes them." (CCC, #1207)

Everyone is invited to participate in this Solemn Celebration of Our Lady's Assumption. A special word of welcome is extended to the young people of the parish who may wish to learn something of our Tradition. Una Voce Canada, an organization that promotes the Extraordinary Form of the Mass will provide the Music and servers. A RECEPTION will follow the in the Parish Hall.

THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Saturday, August 20th, St. Bernard, Abbot, Doctor.

St. Bernard was born in France in the year 1090. In 1111, he entered the Cistercian Order and was eventually elected abbot of Clairvaux. As an exemplary monk and abbot, his influence extended throughout Europe through his spiritual and theological writings as well as his travels. He died in 1153.

25 YEARS OF PRIESTLY SERVICE TO GOD AND TO THE CHURCH! Congratulations to Father N.J. Roy, who this year marks the Silver Jubilee of his priestly ordination (26 July 1986).

Fr. Roy, a scholar of the sacred liturgy and of sacramental theology, recently edited Benedict XVI and the Sacred Liturgy (Dublin: Four Courts, 2010; paperbound: New York: Scepter Press, 2011). Formerly the editor of Antiphon: A Journal for Liturgical Renewal, Fr Roy has published also in the area of Mariology and iconography. We are delighted to have Fr. Roy as a seasonal visitor and always welcome his insights into the Sacred Mysteries that he celebrates with such fidelity, reverence, and devotion. His homilies afford us deeper understanding and appreciation of the readings and prayers of the liturgy; his instructions in the correct celebration of the sacramental rites have been invaluable to the various constituencies of the parish, and his assistance as a confessor and spiritual guide has been a blessing to many in the community.

Please take the opportunity to congratulate Fr. Roy personally after the Sung Latin Mass of the Assumption on Monday 15 August 2011 at 7:30 pm, during refreshments in the Parish Hall.

Fr. Roy's Silver Jubilee furnishes us with an ideal occasion to pray for vocations to the sacred priesthood. "Pray the Lord of the harvest that He send forth labourers into His harvest!" Mt. 9:38.

Two class times are available; afternoon or evening. For more info, cost and registration form, please address your inquiries to liturgical.latin@live.ca or call 905-884-1784.

14 agosto 2011 - 20^a del tempo ordinario

"In questo passo del Vangelo abbiamo appreso la grande fede di una donna, la sua pazienza, costanza e umiltà. Lei, che era pagana, ignorava completamente il messaggio divino, eppure non era priva delle virtù che questo messaggio annuncia; aveva infatti fede perfetta costei che, implorando la pietà del Salvatore, dice. "Abbi pietà di me Signore, figlio di Davide". Poiché lo chiama Signore e figlio di Davide vuol dire che lo crede vero uomo e vero Dio e confida che il Signore può dare la salvezza con la parola senza richiedere la presenza del corpo. Ha la grande dote della pazienza perché, nonostante il silenzio del Signore alla sua prima richiesta, non smette di supplicare, ma con maggiore insistenza chiede l'aiuto della pietà. Il Signore tarda a rispondere non perché disprezzi le preghiere dei miseri, ma per insegnarci a imitare sempre la perseveranza di quella donna che, quanto più si vedeva disprezzata dal Signore, tanto più ardentemente insisteva nella preghiera. ... In quel momento non disperò di ricevere, ma perseverò con rinnovata richiesta: infatti, pur riconoscendosi indegna di essere ristorata dal banchetto del Signore, riteneva che potesse bastare alla sua salvezza anche quella poca grazia che il Signore le avrebbe accordato. Perciò giustamente ha meritato di udire da parte del Salvatore: "O donna, davvero grande è la tua fede; ti sia fatto come desideri", e in quel momento sua figlia fu guarita. A ragione, dunque questa donna, pagana di nascita, ma di cuore costante e credente, simboleggia la fede e la devozione della chiesa formata dalle genti pagane, a cui furono partecipati i misteri della grazia celeste (Ven. Beda, Omelia sul Vangelo, I, 22)."

"Quello che la donna cananea percepisce, lo ripeto, con grande intuito, è che al banchetto del regno il pane non è contato: ce n'è in sovrabbondanza per tutti, e nessuno corre il rischio di rimanerne senza. Questo, ovviamente, lo sa bene anche il Signore. Il suo atteggiamento non è quindi governato da una riserva, dal timore che il pane possa non bastare per tutti: egli è mosso piuttosto dall'obbedienza a certi tempi, a certi momenti che sono iscritti nel sapiente disegno del Padre. Ma l'intuizione della donna, forse, chiarisce a Gesù stesso che i tempi si stanno avvicinando, quando anche i cagnolini saranno ammessi nella sala del banchetto. Per questo egli elogia la fede di chi sa accontentarsi delle briciole e a cui il Signore invece dà il pane (A. Mello, Evangelo secondo Matteo, Ed. Qiqajon, 283)."
