JOHN IS THE VOICE & CHRIST IS THE WORD

John is the voice, but the Lord is the Word who was in the beginning. John is the voice that lasts for a time; from the beginning, Christ is the Word who lives forever. Take away the word, the meaning, and what is the voice? Where there is no understanding, there is only a meaningless sound. The voice without the word strikes the ear but does not build up the heart.

However, let us observe what happens when we first seek to build up our hearts. When I think about what I am going to say, the word or message is already in my heart. When I want to speak to you, I look for a way to share with your heart what is already in mine.

In my search for a way to let this message reach you, so that the word already in my heart may find place also in yours, I use my voice to speak to you. The sound of my voice brings the meaning of the word to you and then passes away. The word which the sound has brought to you is now in your heart, and yet it is still also in mine. When the word has been conveyed to you, does not the sound seem to say: The word ought to grow, and I should diminish? The sound of the voice has made itself heard in the service of the word, and has gone away, as though it were saying: My joy is complete. Let us hold on to the word; we must not lose the word conceived inwardly in our hearts.

Do you need proof that the voice passes away but the divine Word remains? Where is John's baptism today? It served its purpose, and it went away. Now it is Christ's baptism that we celebrate. It is in Christ that we all believe; we hope for salvation in Him. This is the message the voice cried out.

Because it is hard to distinguish word from voice, even John himself was thought to be the Christ. The voice was thought to be the word. But the voice acknowledged what it was, anxious not to give offence to the Word. I am not the Christ, he said, nor Elijah, nor the prophet. And the question came: Who are you, then? He replied: I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way for the Lord. The voice of one crying in the wilderness is the voice of one breaking the silence. Prepare the way for the Lord, he says, as though he were saying: "I speak out in order to lead Him into your hearts, but He does not choose to come where I lead Him unless you prepare the way for Him." What does prepare the way mean, if not "pray well"? What does prepare the way mean, if not "be humble in your thoughts"? We should take our lesson from John the Baptist. He is thought to be the Christ; he declares he is not what they think. He does not take advantage of their mistake to further his own glory.

If he had said, "I am the Christ," you can imagine how readily he would have been believed, since they believed he was the Christ even before he spoke. But he did not say it; he acknowledged what he was. He pointed out clearly who he was; he humbled himself.

He saw where his salvation lay. He understood that he was a lamp, and his fear was that it might be blown out by the wind of pride.

Taken from a Sermon of St. Augustine

WAITING? The question is: Is the humanity of our time still waiting for a Saviour? One has the feeling that many consider God as foreign to their own interests. Apparently, they do not need Him. They live as though He did not exist and, worse still, as though He were an "obstacle" to remove in order to fulfill themselves. Even among believers - we are sure of it - some let themselves be attracted by enticing dreams and distracted by misleading doctrines that suggest deceptive shortcuts to happiness. Yet, despite its contradictions, worries and tragedies, and perhaps precisely because of them, humanity today seeks a path of renewal, of salvation, it seeks a Saviour and awaits, sometimes unconsciously, the coming of the Saviour who renews the world and our life, the coming of Christ, the one true Redeemer of man and of the whole of man. -Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, General Audience Dec. 20, 2006

"Let us not listen to those who deny that the Church of God is able to forgive all sins. They are wretched indeed, because they do not recognize in Peter the rock and they refuse to believe that the keys of the kingdom of heaven, lost from their own hands, have been given to the Church." -St. Augustine of Hippo, Bishop, Doctor

3a di Avvento - 15 Dicembre 2013

"Il Signore vuole aprire una via dentro di voi, per la quale possa penetrare nelle vostre anime e costruire il suo cammino... Questa è la via per la quale entrò la Parola di Dio, che consiste nella 'capacità' del cuore umano. Grande è il cuore dell'uomo, spazioso e capace, come se fosse un mondo... Vedi come il cuore dell'uomo non sia piccolo, dato che contiene tante cose. Osserva come la sua grandezza non risieda nelle sue dimensioni fisiche, bensì nella forza del suo sentimento, per cui raggiunge tale conoscenza di verità... Prepara la via al Signore con una buona condotta e con azioni irreprensibili spiana il sentiero, perché la Parola del Signore cammini in te senza ostacolo alcuno (Origene, Comm. a Lc 21, 5-7)."

"La Chiesa ha scoperto, all'interno della sua fede, la testimonianza silenziosa della Vergine, ma vi è una testimonianza silenziosa anche del Battista. Testimonianza che stupisce! Il più grande dei profeti è stato trattato, da quel Dio che pure lo amava, come non viene trattato neppure il più piccolo nel regno dei cieli. (...) Profeta dell'attesa e della rinuncia, è stato colmato nella sua rinuncia perché ha udito la voce dello Sposo, ma questa voce non si rivolgeva a lui e lo Sposo viveva per altri... Il rigore e lo spoliamento della vita del Battista, questo deserto implacabile che fu la sua unica dimora, ci spaventano se ne misuriamo l'intensità, l'immensità. Bisognava essere Dio per concepire tale destino e proporlo a un uomo, per osare domandargli tale nascondimento, tale passione prima che il ricordo della passione di Cristo potesse addolcirne le sofferenze e illuminarne la notte... Nessuno, a parte la Vergine, è stato più intimamente associato all'incarnazione del Figlio di Dio, ma la vergine trovava la sua gloria nella sua stessa povertà, mentre il Battista ha trovato solo l'abbandono e la morte (A. Besnard, Giovanni Battista pp. 646-7)."
