"You are the salt of the earth...." One of the main functions of salt is to season food, to give it taste and flavour. This image reminds us that, through Baptism, our whole being has been profoundly changed, because it has been "seasoned" with the new life which comes from Christ (cf. Rom 6:4). The salt which keeps our Christian identity intact even in a very secularized world is the grace of Baptism. Through Baptism we are re-born. We begin to live in Christ and become capable of responding to His call to "offer [our] bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God" (Rom 12:1). Writing to the Christians of Rome, Saint Paul urges them to show clearly that their way of living and thinking was different from that of their contemporaries: "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect" (Rom 12:2).

...As the salt of the earth, you are called to preserve the faith which you have received and to pass it on intact to others. Your generation is being challenged in a special way to keep safe the deposit of faith (cf. 2 Th 2:15; 1 Tim 6:20; 2 Tim 1:14).

Discover your Christian roots, learn about the Church's history, deepen your knowledge of the spiritual heritage which has been passed on to you, follow in the footsteps of the witnesses and teachers who have gone before you! Only by staying faithful to God's commandments, to the Covenant which Christ sealed with His blood poured out on the Cross, will you be the apostles and witnesses of the new millennium.

It is the nature of human beings, and especially youth, to seek the Absolute, the meaning and fullness of life. Dear young people, do not be content with anything less than the highest ideals! Do not let yourselves be dispirited by those who are disillusioned with life and have grown deaf to the deepest and most authentic desires of their heart. You are right to be disappointed with hollow entertainment and passing fads, and with aiming at too little in life. If you have an ardent desire for the Lord you will steer clear of the mediocrity and conformism so widespread in our society.

"You are the light of the world...." For those who first heard Jesus, as for us, the symbol of light evokes the desire for truth and the thirst for the fullness of knowledge which are imprinted deep within every human being. When the light fades or vanishes altogether, we no longer see things as they really are. In the heart of the night we can feel frightened and insecure, and we impatiently await the coming of the light of dawn. Dear young people, it is up to you to be the watchmen of the morning (cf. Is 21:11-12) who announce the coming of the sun who is the Risen Christ!

The light which Jesus speaks of in the Gospel is the light of faith, God's free gift, which enlightens the heart and clarifies the mind. "It is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness', Who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God on the face of Christ" (2 Cor 4:6). That is why the words of Jesus explaining His identity and His mission are so important: "I Am the light of the world; whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life" (Jn 8:12). Our personal encounter with Christ bathes life in new light, sets us on the right path, and sends us out to be His witnesses. This new way of looking at the world and at people, which comes to us from Him, leads us more deeply into the mystery of faith, which is not just a collection of theoretical assertions to be accepted and approved by the mind, but an experience to be had, a truth to be lived, the salt and light of all reality (cf. Veritatis Splendor, 88).

In this secularized age, when many of our contemporaries think and act as if God did not exist or are attracted to irrational forms of religion, it is you,... who must show that faith is a personal decision which involves your whole life. Let the Gospel be the measure and guide of life's decisions and plans! Then you will be missionaries in all that you do and say, and wherever you work and live you will be signs of God's love, credible witnesses to the loving presence of Jesus Christ. Never forget: "No one lights a lamp and then puts it under a bushel" (Mt 5:15)! Just as salt gives flavour to food and light illumines the darkness, so too holiness gives full meaning to life and makes it reflect God's glory. How many saints, especially young saints, can we count in the Church's history! In their love for God their heroic virtues shone before the world, and so they became models of life which the Church has held up for imitation by all.

Yes, now is the time for mission! ... The Church welcomes you and wishes to be your home and your school of communion and prayer. Study the Word of God and let it enlighten your minds and hearts. Draw strength from the sacramental grace of Reconciliation and the Eucharist. Visit the Lord in that "heart to heart" contact that is Eucharistic Adoration. Day after day, you will receive new energy to help you to bring comfort to the suffering and peace to the world. Many people are wounded by life: they are excluded from economic progress, and are without a home, a family, a job; there are people who are lost in a world of false illusions, or have abandoned all hope. By contemplating the light radiant on the face of the Risen Christ, you will learn to live as "children of the light and children of the day" (1 Th 5:5), and in this way you will show that "the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true" (Eph 5:9).

“Come la Parola vuole che siano i cristiani, quali discepoli del Cristo: modellati solo su ciò che vedono in lui o che da lui odono. Come luce del mondo, in modo da non ammettere il male e da illuminare coloro che ad essi si accostano affinché conoscano la verità, e divengano ciò che devono essere o mostrino ciò che sono. Come sale in terra, cosicché quanti hanno comunione con loro siano rinnovati nello spirito per diventare incorruttibili (S. Basilio il Grande, Morali 80,1.9s).”

“Risplendano le vostre opere davanti agli uomini, perché vedano le buone azioni vostre e glorifichino il Padre vostro che è nei cieli (Mt 5,16). Non dunque “perché siate visti da loro”, con l’intenzione di convertirli a voi, perché se siete qualcosa non lo siete da voi; ma “perché glorifichino il Padre vostro che è nei cieli”, convertendosi al quale diventino quello che voi siete (Agostino, La città di Dio, 5,13-16).”

“Lontani non si possono interessare con una preghiera che non diviene carità, con una processione che non aiuta a portare le croci dell’ora. Senza volerlo li spingiamo sulle strade di una carità senza Dio e di una attività sociale senza preghiera. Un cristiano che si rassegnasse ad assistere indifferente alla rovina del mondo, rifiuterebbe la propria vocazione temporale, che è una vocazione di civiltà, e tradirebbe il Vangelo, traducendo il soprannaturale in accidioso quietismo. (...) Noi non ci crediamo dispensati dal lavorare con responsabilità nostra, né ci rifiutiamo di camminare con chiunque ha rettitudine di intenti e di opere. È finito il tempo di fare da spettatore sotto il pretesto che si è onesti e cristiani. Troppi ancora hanno le mani pulite perché non hanno mai fatto niente. Un cristiano che non accetta il rischio di perdersi per mantenersi fedele a un impegno di salvezza, non è degno di impegnarsi col Cristo (P. Mazzolari, Se tu resti con noi pp. 42-4).”

“Che cosa sono queste buone opere che possono essere viste in questa luce? Non possono essere altro che le opere che Gesù stesso suscitò in loro (i discepoli ndr) quando li chiamò, quando li fece luce del mondo sotto la sua croce: essere poveri, miti, stranieri, apportatori di pace ed infine essere perseguitati e respinti, ed in tutto ciò una sola cosa: portare la croce di Gesù. La croce è la strana luce che risplende, e in questa sola tutte quelle buone opere dei discepoli possono essere viste. In tutto ciò, non è detto che Dio divenga visibile... Visibile diventa la croce e visibili diventano le opere della croce, visibili diventano la privazione e la rinuncia di quelli che sono chiamati beati. Ma nella luce di questa comunità non si può più lodare l’uomo, ma Dio solo (D. Bonhoeffer, Sequela pp. 99-100).”

AVVISI

1. Vi si invita a prelevare le vostre ricevute fiscali al retro della chiesa.
2. Mercoledì, 9 febbraio, alle 2pm, P. Steven celebrerà la Santa Messa in latino secondo il rito tridentino.
3. Sabato, 12 febbraio, dopo la messa delle 9am, P. Steven parlerà del santo Rosario.
