MIRACULOUS SIGNS REVEAL CHRIST'S POWER

... Jesus Himself explained in this case that the miracle of curing the paralytic was a sign of the saving power whereby He forgives sins. Jesus performed this sign to show that He had come as Savior of the world. His principal task was to free mankind from spiritual evil, the evil that separates man from God and impedes salvation in God. That evil is sin.

With the same key one can explain that special category of Christ's miracles, the driving out of demons. According to Mark's Gospel, Jesus ordered, "Unclean spirit, come out of the man!" when Jesus met the man in the territory of the Gerasenes who had an unclean spirit (Mk 5:8). On that occasion we witness an unusual conversation. When that unclean spirit felt threatened by Christ, he cried out against Jesus, "What have You to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure You by God, do not torment me!" Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He replied, "Legion is my name. There are many of us" (cf. Mk 5:7-9). We are therefore on the margin of an obscure world involving physical and psychical factors which undoubtedly play their part in causing pathological conditions. The demonic reality is inserted into that world. Various represented and described in human language, the demonic world is radically hostile to God and therefore to man and to Christ Who had come to free him from the power of evil. But in spite of himself, in that clash with the other presence, even the unclean spirit burst out into that admission coming from a perverse but lucid intelligence, "Son of the Most High God."

...Jesus made His mission clearly known to free humanity from evil and first of all from sin, spiritual evil. This mission implies and explains his struggle with the evil spirit who is the prime author of evil in human history. As we read in the Gospels, Jesus repeatedly declared that this is the meaning of His work and of that of His apostles. We read in Luke: "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to tread...upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you" (Lk 10:18-19). According to Mark, after having appointed the Twelve, Jesus sent them forth "to preach and to have authority to drive out demons" (Mk 3:14-15). According to Luke the seventy-two disciples, after returning from their first mission, reported to Jesus, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of Your name" (Lk 10:17).

This manifested the power of the Son of Man over sin and over the author of sin. Even the demons are subject to the name of Jesus, which means Savior. However, His saving power will have its definitive fulfillment in the sacrifice of the cross. The cross will mark the complete victory over Satan and sin. This is the Father's plan which His only-begotten Son fulfilled by becoming man, to conquer in weakness and to attain the glory of the resurrection and of life by means of the humiliation of the cross. The divine power shines forth even in this paradox, that power which can rightly be called the "power of the cross."

...At the end of our reflection we turn once more to the text of St. Augustine, "If we consider now the deeds worked by Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, we see that the eyes of the blind, miraculously opened, were closed by death, and the limbs of the paralyzed, miraculously restored, were again immobilized in death. All that was temporarily cured in the mortal body, was in the end undone; but the soul that believed passed to eternal life. With this infirm man the Lord wished to give a great sign to the soul that would have believed, for the remission of whose sins he had come, and whose weaknesses He had healed by the humiliation of Himself" (Augustine, In Io. Ev. Tr., 17, 1).

Yes, all the "mighty deeds, wonders and signs" of Christ are for the purpose of revealing Him as Messiah, as Son of God, for the revelation of Him who alone has the power to free mankind from sin and from death, of Him who is truly the Savior of the world. (General Audience on November 25, 1987)

4^a del tempo ordinario - 29 gennaio 2012

«Nel troppo rumore diventa difficile udire l'impercettibile discorso di Dio, un Dio che - almeno lui! - non urla per farsi sentire ma ci invita, piuttosto a rientrare in noi stessi» (Paolo Curtaz).

«Gesù si ribella contro i maestri della Legge, e la sua ribellione è a favore dei piccoli. I maestri impongono loro un giogo insopportabile. Ignorano che Dio rende liberi. Impongono a Dio le loro convenzioni sociali e la loro regola. Gesù restituisce a Dio la sua libertà trasgredendo il potere degli scribi e dei farisei, rifiutando il fondamento stesso della loro autorità» (C. Duquoc).

«Pareva che da ogni crepa del terreno sbucassero demoni... Gesù è il grande vincitore dei demoni. Dovunque giunge, egli "sdemonizza" la terra» (Kásemann).

«L'indemoniato è simbolo di tutte le obiezioni che ci impediscono, finalmente, di diventare credenti. Abita nella sinagoga, partecipa alla preghiera: in monito a diffidare dall'esteriorità» (Paolo Curtaz).

Santa Maria, Madre di Dio, tu hai donato al mondo la vera luce, Gesù, tuo Figlio – Figlio di Dio.
Ti sei consegnata completamente alla chiamata di Dio
e sei così diventata sorgente della bontà che sgorga da Lui.
Mostraci Gesù. Guidaci a Lui.
Insegnaci a conoscerlo e ad amarlo, perché possiamo anche noi diventare capaci di vero amore ed essere sorgenti di acqua viva in mezzo a un mondo assetato.
(S.S. Benedetto XVI, Deus charitas est)
