The Story and You™

Sacred Conversations

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

A lot of times, we have a sense that the things we do that make us feel good aren't actually good for us. Isolation is one of those things that feels good for a while. There is something increasingly seductive about staying at home with a book, or with endless Netflix movies.

Today we can block any calls we don't want. We have cameras to assure we never have to answer the door. Of course, the longer we isolate, the more we crave it. That, we secretly know, is not good for us.

But yesterday I heard about my friend Ginny (96) from some of her family members. After her beloved husband died, we all held our breath, wondering how she would ever live without him. The adjustment was painful, but made bearable by the warm love of the many, many friends she and Bill cultivated through their long marriage. Ginny could have withdrawn, I guess. But instead, she responded to the grace of family and friends. Every night, she hosts "happy hour" with a different set of friends. Ginny knows what we all secretly know inside: it is not good for us to be alone.

Today's feast is actually a mandate for all of us: Just as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit exist in relationship, we exist in relationship with each other. When we talk to that stranger on the plane, or make that phone call we've put off, or get over to the school and volunteer to read to the kids, we are acting as agents of the Holy Trinity.

Warm relationships are a big jigsaw puzzle. Are you the missing piece? Let the Holy Trinity show the way.

What relationships do you miss? How will you restore them?

SUMMER VACATIONS

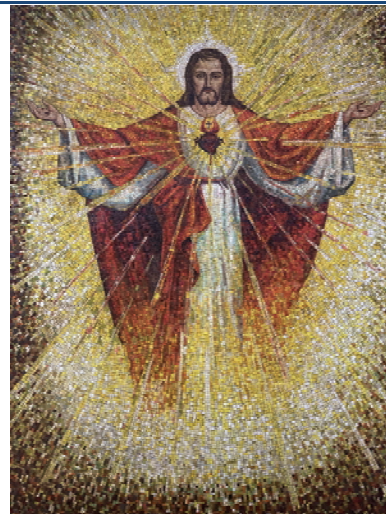

Since our parish has so many families who spend considerable time away from home each summer, it is especially important that we all try hard to keep the financial contributions for the parish coming regularly during the months of June, July and August. Often times, during the summer our parish's communal collections go down, but the parish obligations don't change. We still have bills to pay, salaries, electrical, maintenance, etc. Whatever you do and wherever you go, we hope that you have a great summer!

BULLETIN

There will be no bulletin for the month of July and August. The bulletin will resume the weekend of September 9-10.

THE MONTH OF JUNE IS DEDICATED TO THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Following the month of May in which we honor our Mother Mary, the month of June is dedicated to our strong devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Of all devotions, this particular devotion to the Sacred Heart has historically been, and continues to be, one of the most popular and widespread devotions here in the Archdiocese of Toronto, and for all Catholics worldwide. This year the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus will take place on Friday, June 16, 2023. Visit www.archtoronto.org/sacredheart to read a letter from Archbishop Leo on the Sacred Heart of Jesus and for many more resources.
