THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD

...With joy then and fresh resolves for the future, let us reflect briefly on the great mystery of today's liturgy. In the Scripture readings the whole significance of Christ's Ascension is summarized for us. The richness of this mystery is spelled out in two statements: Jesus gave instructions, and then Jesus took His place.

In the providence of God – in the eternal design of the Father – the hour had come for Christ to go away. He would leave His Apostles behind, with His Mother Mary, but only after He had given them His instructions. The Apostles now had a mission to perform according to the instructions that Jesus left, and these instructions were in turn the faithful expression of the Father's will.

The instructions indicated, above all, that the Apostles were to wait for the Holy Spirit, Who was the gift of the Father. From the beginning, it had to be crystal-clear that the source of the Apostles' strength is the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit who guides the Church in the way of truth; the Gospel is to spread through the power of God, and not by means of human wisdom or strength.

The Apostles, moreover, were instructed to teach – to proclaim the Good News to the whole world. And they were to baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Like Jesus, they were to speak explicitly about the Kingdom of God and about salvation. The Apostles were to give witness to Christ to the ends of the earth. The early Church clearly understood these instructions and the missionary era began. And everybody knew that this missionary era could never end until the same Jesus, who went up to heaven, would come back again.

The words of Jesus became a treasure for the Church to guard and to proclaim, to meditate on and to live. And at the same time, the Holy Spirit implanted in the Church an apostolic charism, in order to keep this revelation intact. Through His words Jesus was to live on in His Church: I Am with you always. And so the whole ecclesial community became conscious of the need for fidelity to the instructions of Jesus, to the deposit of faith. This solicitude was to pass from generation to generation – down to our own day. And it was because of this principle that I spoke recently ... stating that the first priority for seminaries today is the teaching of God's word in all its purity and integrity, with all its exigencies and in all its power. The word of God – and the word of God alone – is the basis for all ministry, for all pastoral activity, for all priestly action. The power of God's word constituted the dynamic basis of the Second Vatican Council, and John XXIII pointed out clearly on the day it opened: 'The greatest concern of the Ecumenical Council is this: that the sacred deposit of Christian doctrine should be more effectively guarded and taught'. And if the seminarians of this generation are to be adequately prepared to take on the heritage and challenge of this Council they must be trained above all in God's word: in 'the sacred deposit of Christian doctrine'. Yes, ... our greatest challenge is to be faithful to the instructions of the Lord Jesus.

And the second reflection on the meaning of the Ascension is found in this phrase: Jesus took His place. After having undergone the humiliation of His passion and death, Jesus took His place at the right-hand of God; He took His place with His eternal Father. But He also entered heaven as our Head. Whereupon, in the expression of Leo the Great, the glory of the Head became the hope of the body. For all eternity Christ takes His place as the firstborn among many brethren: our nature is with God in Christ. And as man, the Lord Jesus lives forever to intercede for us with Father. At the same time, from His throne of glory, Jesus sends out to the whole Church a message of hope and a call to holiness.

Because of Christ's merits, because of His intercession with the Father, we are able to attain justice and holiness of life, in Him. The Church may indeed experience difficulties, the Gospel may suffer setbacks, but because Jesus is at the right-hand of the Father the Church will never know defeat. Christ's victory is ours. The power of the glorified Christ, the beloved Son of the eternal Father, is superabundant, to sustain each of us and all of us in the fidelity of our dedication to God's Kingdom and in the generosity of our celibacy. The efficacy of Christ's Ascension touches all us in the concrete reality of our daily lives. Because of this mystery it is the vocation of the whole Church to wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Dear sons, be imbued with the hope that is so much a part of the mystery of the Ascension of Jesus. Be deeply conscious of Christ's victory and triumph over sin and death. Realize that the strength of Christ is greater than our weakness, greater than the weakness of the whole world. Try to understand and share the joy that Mary experienced in knowing that her Son had taken His place with His Father, whom He loved infinitely. And renew your faith today in the promise of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has gone to prepare a place for us, so that He can come back again and take us to Himself. This is the mystery of the Ascension of our Head. Let us always remember: Jesus gave instructions, and then Jesus took His place. Amen. (Homily of Pope John Paul II, May 1979)

5 giugno 2011 - Ascensione del Signore

Nessuno pensi che l'Ascensione sia una dipartita di Gesù, una specie di allontanamento, sia pure nello splendore dell'ascesa al cielo. L'Ascensione è il modo nuovo di Gesù di essere presente tra i suoi, come scrive Leone magno: "Proprio allora il Figlio di Dio si diede a conoscere nella maniera più sublime e più santa come Figlio di Dio, quando rientrò nella gloria della maestà del Padre e cominciò in modo ineffabile a farsi più presente per la sua divinità, lui che nella sua umanità visibile, si era fatto più distante da noi. (...) L'Ascensione di Cristo significa anche elevazione per noi, e là dove è giunta in anticipo la gloria del capo, è come un invito alla speranza del corpo: per questo dobbiamo giustamente esultare".

"Disceso dal cielo alle regioni terrestri, hai risuscitato con te, poiché sei Dio, la natura umana che giaceva in basso, nel carcere dell'ade, e con la tua ascensione, o Cristo, l'hai fatta salire ai cieli, rendendola con te partecipe del trono del Padre tuo (cfr Ef 2,6): perché tu sei misericordioso e amico degli uomini! (Tropario dalla Liturgia bizantina)."

"Dio vuole salvarci nel popolo. Non vuole una salvezza isolata. Ecco perché questa Chiesa di oggi, più che mai, accentua il senso di popolo. E perciò la Chiesa stessa subisce conflitti, perché la Chiesa non vuole la massa, vuole il popolo. La massa è il mucchio di uomini: quanto più sono addormentati, tanto meglio; quanto più conformisti, tanto meglio... La Chiesa vuole stimolare gli uomini nel vero senso di popolo. Che cosa il popolo? Il popolo è una comunità di uomini in cui tutti contribuiscono al bene comune. (...) Questa è la missione affidata alla Chiesa, missione difficile: estirpare i peccati dalla storia, estirpare i peccati dalla politica, estirpare i peccati dall'economia, estirpare i peccati ovunque siano... La Chiesa deve soffrire perché dice la verità, perché denuncia il peccato, perché estirpa il peccato. A nessuno piace che gli tocchino una piaga, perciò sussulta una società che ha molte piaghe, quando c'è chi la tocca con coraggio (O. Romero, La violenza dell'amore pp. 43-4)."
