THE HOLY SEASON OF LENT

Lent began on Ash Wednesday, March 5th. We should give some consideration to our Lenten penance and practices as we prepare to celebrate the Paschal Triduum. Lent is the yearly celebration by the Church of her corporate conversion in Jesus Christ. Through forty days of closer attention to God's Word and of more fervent prayer, we prepare to celebrate the Paschal Mystery. In this preparation for the Solemn Feast of Easter, the faithful do penance.

The privileged forms of penance of our Church are fasting, almsgiving, prayers, works of mercy, and abstinence from meat. It is evangelical (Gospel) law that a follower of Christ must do penance. While the heart of penance is hatred for sin as an offence against God, external forms of penance are required to deepen and encourage the internal virtue.

All Fridays of the year are days of abstinence from meat but Catholics may substitute special acts of charity or piety on this day. Christian fasting obtains its full meaning when we deprive ourselves of food in order to be more open to prayer, to the needs of others, and to save money to give to the poor. Current Church discipline permits one to take a main and two lesser meals which do not equal the main meal. Mandatory fast days are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, on which days one must abstain from meat and eat only one main meal. Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence and meat may not be taken on these days. The law of abstinence from meat binds those who are 14 and older; the law of fasting binds those from 18 to 59 years of age. Parents are reminded of their duty to introduce children gradually to the understanding and practice of penance. Adult example will be the greatest influence in this matter.

St. Joseph, I, your unworthy child, greet you. You are the faithful protector and intercessor of all who love and venerate you. You know that I have special confidence in you and that, after Jesus and Mary, I place all my hope of salvation in you, for you are especially powerful with God and will never abandon your faithful servants. Therefore I humbly invoke you and commend myself, with all who are dear to me and all that belong to me, to your intercession. I beg of you, by your love for Jesus and Mary, not to abandon me during life and to assist me at the hour of my death.

Glorious Saint Joseph, spouse of the Immaculate Virgin, obtain for me a pure, humble, charitable mind, and perfect resignation to the divine Will. Be my guide, my father, and my model through life that I may merit to die as you did in the arms of Jesus and Mary.

Loving Saint Joseph, faithful follower of Jesus Christ, I raise my heart to you to implore your powerful intercession in obtaining from the Divine Heart of Jesus all the graces necessary for my spiritual and temporal welfare, particularly the grace of a happy death, and the special grace I now implore: (Mention your request). Guardian of the Word Incarnate, I feel confident that your prayers in my behalf will be graciously heard before the throne of God. Amen.

1<sup>a</sup> di Quaresima - 9 marzo 2014

“Ad imitazione del nostro Maestro, noi cristiani siamo chiamati a guardare le miserie dei fratelli, a toccarle, a farcene carico e a operare concretamente per alleviarle. La miseria non coincide con la povertà; la miseria è la povertà senza fiducia, senza solidarietà, senza speranza. ... Se riteniamo di non aver bisogno di Dio, che in Cristo ci tende la mano, perché pensiamo di bastare a noi stessi, ci incamminiamo su una via di fallimento. Dio è l'unico che veramente salva e libera. Il Vangelo è il vero antidoto contro la miseria spirituale: il cristiano è chiamato a portare in ogni ambiente l'annuncio liberante che esiste il perdono del male commesso, che Dio è più grande del nostro peccato e ci ama gratuitamente, sempre, e che siamo fatti per la comunione e per la vita eterna. Il Signore ci invita ad essere annunciatori gioiosi di questo messaggio di misericordia e di speranza! È bello sperimentare la gioia di diffondere questa buona notizia, di condividere il tesoro a noi affidato, per consolare i cuori affranti e dare speranza a tanti fratelli e sorelle avvolti dal buio. Si tratta di seguire e imitare Gesù, che è andato verso i poveri e i peccatori come il pastore verso la pecora perduta, e ci è andato pieno d'amore. Uniti a Lui possiamo aprire con coraggio nuove strade di evangelizzazione e promozione umana.

Cari fratelli e sorelle, questo tempo di Quaresima trovi la Chiesa intera disposta e sollecita nel testimoniare a quanti vivono nella miseria materiale, morale e spirituale il messaggio evangelico, che si riassume nell'annuncio dell'amore del Padre misericordioso, pronto ad abbracciare in Cristo ogni persona. Potremo farlo nella misura in cui saremo conformati a Cristo, che si è fatto povero e ci ha arricchiti con la sua povertà. La Quaresima è un tempo adatto per la spogliazione; e ci farà bene domandarci di quali cose possiamo privarci al fine di aiutare e arricchire altri con la nostra povertà. Non dimentichiamo che la vera povertà duole: non sarebbe valida una spogliazione senza questa dimensione penitenziale. Diffido dell'elemosina che non costa e che non duole.

Lo Spirito Santo, grazie al quale «[siamo] come poveri, ma capaci di arricchire molti; come gente che non ha nulla e invece possediamo tutto» (2 Cor 6,10), sostenga questi nostri propositi e rafforzi in noi l'attenzione e la responsabilità verso la miseria umana, per diventare misericordiosi e operatori di misericordia. Con questo auspicio, assicuro la mia preghiera affinché ogni credente e ogni comunità ecclesiale percorra con frutto l'itinerario quaresimale, e vi chiedo di pregare per me. Che il Signore vi benedica e la Madonna vi custodisca (Papa Francesco, Messaggio per la Quaresima 2014).

AVVISI
