I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH & THE LIFE

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God and believe also in Me” (Jn 14:1). In the Gospel just proclaimed, we heard these words of Jesus to His disciples who were in need of encouragement. In fact, His allusion to His imminent departure had thrown them into turmoil. They were afraid of being abandoned, of being alone, and the Lord consoled them with a very specific promise: “I Am going to prepare a place for you”, and then, “I will come again and will take you to Myself, that where I Am you may be also” (Jn 14:2-3).

Through Thomas, the Apostles reply to this reassurance: “Lord, we do not know where You are going; how can we know the way?” (Jn 14:5). The remark is apt, and Jesus does not avoid the question which it implies. The answer He gives will remain forever a light shining for generations still to come: “I Am the way and the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father but by Me” (Jn 14:6).

The “place” that Jesus goes to prepare is in “the house of the Father”; there the disciple will be able to be with the Master for all eternity and share in His joy. Yet there is only one path that leads there: Christ, to whom the disciple must be conformed more and more. Holiness consists precisely in this: that it is no longer the Christian who lives, but Christ Himself who lives in him (cf. Gal 2:20). An exhilarating goal, accompanied by a promise which is no less consoling: “Whoever believes in Me will also do the works that I do, and greater works than I will they do, because I Am going to the Father” (Jn 14:12). The Cross of Christ is truly the outstanding school of love; indeed, the very “well-spring” of love. Purified by suffering, the love of this faithful disciple drew hearts to Christ and to his demanding Gospel of salvation....

... Let me conclude with the words of the Gospel of this Mass: “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Have faith in God”. There is a reference to this exhortation of Christ in the advice which (Padre Pio) never tired of giving to the faithful: “Abandon yourselves fully to the divine heart of Jesus, like a child in the arms of his mother”. May these words of encouragement fill our hearts too and become a source of peace, serenity and joy. Why should we fear, if Christ for us is the Way, and the Truth and the Life? Why should we not trust in God who is the Father, our Father? May “Our Lady of Graces”,... take us by the hand and lead us to seek whole-heartedly that supernatural charity flowing forth from the wounded side of the Crucified One. Amen.

Pope John Paul II’s Homily, 2 May 1999

THE FIVE FIRST SATURDAYS DEVOTION

During her July apparition at Fatima, Our Lady said to Lucia, “I shall come to ask... that on the First Saturday of every month, Communions of reparation be made in atonement for the sins of the world.” Although she made no further mention of this devotion at Fatima, on December 10, 1925, our Blessed Mother again appeared to Lucia at Pentevedra, Spain,... It was there Our Lady completed her request for the Five First Saturdays and gave her great promise.

Appearing with the Queen of Heaven in that apparition was the Infant Jesus, Who said to Lucia: “Have pity on the Heart of your Most Holy Mother. It is covered with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment, and there is no one to remove them with an act of reparation.”

Our Lady then spoke: “See, my daughter, my Heart encircled by thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment by their blasphemies and ingratitude. Do you, at least, strive to console me. Tell them that I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the First Saturday of five successive months, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary.”

The elements of this devotion, therefore, consist in the following four points, all of which must be offered in reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. One should make this intention before carrying out Our Lady’s requests. A renewal of the actual intention at the time is best; however, if such an intention is made now, it will fulfill the requirements if, for instance, the actual intention is forgotten at the time of confession.

1. Confession: This confession can be made before the First Saturday or afterward, provided that Holy Communion be received in the state of grace.
2. Holy Communion: Before receiving Holy Communion, it is likewise necessary to offer it in reparation to Our Lady. Our Lord told Lucia in 1930, “This Communion will be accepted on the following Sunday for just reasons, if my priests allow it so.” So if work or school, sickness, or another just reason prevents the Communion on a First Saturday, with this permission it may be received the following Sunday. If Communion is transferred, any or all of the other acts of the devotion may also be performed on Sunday if the person so desires.
3. Rosary: The Rosary is a vocal prayer said while meditating upon the mysteries of Our Lord’s life and Passion and Our Lady’s life. To comply with the request of our Blessed Mother, it must be offered in reparation and said properly while meditating.
4. 15-minute meditation: Also offered in reparation, the meditation may embrace one or more mysteries; it may include all, taken together or separately. This meditation should be the richest of any meditation, because Our Lady promised to be present when she said “...those who keep me company...”

To those who faithfully follow Our Lady’s requests for the Five First Saturdays, she has made a wonderful promise which she, as Mediatrix of All Graces, will certainly fulfill: “I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation.” This means that our Blessed Mother will be present at the hour of death with the actual grace of final perseverance, (which after the gift/grace of Faith), is the most important grace.

After completing the Five First Saturdays, one may continue the devotion simply to console the Immaculate Heart of Our Lady. A tender love of our Blessed Mother will lead one to do all he can to make reparation for the sins which pierce her Immaculate Heart.

5<sup>a</sup> di Pasqua - 22 maggio 2011

"Il Figlio di Dio, il vero uomo: È lui la misura del vero umanesimo. 'Adulta' non è una fede che segue le onde della moda e l'ultima novità; adulta e matura è una fede profondamente radicata nell'amicizia con Cristo. È quest'amicizia che ci apre a tutto ciò che è buono e ci dona il criterio per discernere tra vero e falso, tra inganno e verità. Questa fede adulta dobbiamo maturare, a questa fede dobbiamo guidare il gregge di Cristo. Ed è questa fede - solo la fede - che crea unità e si realizza nella carità. San Paolo ci offre a questo proposito - in contrasto con le continue peripezie di coloro che sono come fanciulli sbalottati dalle onde - una bella parola: fare la verità nella carità, come formula fondamentale dell'esistenza cristiana. In Cristo, coincidono verità e carità. Nella misura in cui ci avviciniamo a Cristo, anche nella nostra vita, verità e carità si fondono. La carità senza verità sarebbe cieca; la verità senza carità sarebbe come 'un cembalo che tintinna'.

Tante volte sentiamo di essere - come è vero - soltanto servi inutili. E, ciò nonostante, il Signore ci chiama amici, ci fa suoi amici, ci dona la sua amicizia. Il Signore definisce l'amicizia in un duplice modo. Non ci sono segreti tra amici: Cristo ci dice tutto quanto ascolta dal Padre; ci dona la sua piena fiducia e, con la fiducia, anche la conoscenza. Ci rivela il suo volto, il suo cuore. Ci mostra la sua tenerezza per noi, il suo amore appassionato che va fino alla follia della croce. Si affida a noi, ci dà il potere di parlare con il suo io ... Affida il suo corpo, la Chiesa, a noi. Affida alle nostre deboli menti, alle nostre deboli mani la sua verità - il mistero del Dio Padre, Figlio e Spirito Santo; il mistero del Dio che »ha tanto amato il mondo da dare il suo Figlio unigenito«. Ci ha reso suoi amici - e noi come rispondiamo?" (Joseph Ratzinger [Benedetto XVI], Omelia alla Messa prima del Conclave 2005)

*"Gli dice Filippo: Signore mostraci il Padre... Gli rispose Gesù: ... Chi ha visto me ha visto il Padre. Essendo Gesù l'impronta e l'immagine di Dio Padre, è verace quando dice "Chi ha visto me, ha visto il Padre". Il Padre è vita per natura: ma lo è anche il Figlio che vivifica ciò che è corrotto, distrugge l'impero della morte e risuscita i morti. Perciò crediamo che il Figlio è dal Padre, cioè dalla sua sostanza e procede in modo ineffabile da lui e in lui dimora (Cirillo di Alessandria, Commento a Giovanni, vol.III, 9)."*
