Dear Brothers and sisters, In meditating on the biblical Readings for this Sunday..., I was struck by the fact that today the main theme of the Word of God is prayer; indeed, we "ought always to pray and not lose heart", as the Gospel says (cf. Lk 18: 1). At first sight, this might seem a message not particularly relevant, unrealistic, not very incisive with regard to a social reality with so many problems such as yours. But, if we think about it, we understand that this Word contains a message that certainly goes against the tide and yet is destined to illuminate in depth the conscience of this Church and city of yours. I would sum it up like this: the power that changes the world and transforms it into the Kingdom of God, in silence and without fanfare, is faith - and prayer is the expression of faith. When faith is filled with love for God, recognized as a good and just Father, prayer becomes persevering, insistent, it becomes a groan of the spirit, a cry of the soul that penetrates God's Heart. Thus, prayer becomes the greatest transforming power in the world. In the face of a difficult and complex social reality, as yours certainly is, it is essential to strengthen hope which is based on faith and expressed in unflinching prayer. It is prayer that keeps the torch of faith alight. Jesus asks, as we heard at the end of the Gospel: "When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth?" (Lk 18: 8). It is a question that makes us think. What will be our answer to this disturbing question? Today, let us repeat together with humble courage: Lord, in coming among us at this Sunday celebration you find us gathered together with the lamp of faith lit. We believe and trust in you! Increase our faith!

20 ottobre 2013 - 29<sup>a</sup> del tempo ordinario

"Ciò che Gesù chiede alla sua Chiesa è la custodia fedele del deposito rivelato perché possa esercitare sulla terra questa intercessione potente a vantaggio di tutti gli uomini. L'attesa perseverante infatti è la vera bellezza della Chiesa che attira la venuta di Gesù, suo Sposo e Salvatore del mondo."

Dice l'Apostolo: Siate sempre lieti, pregate senza interruzione. Ma chi può pregare sempre così e, senza venir meno o interrompersi, attendere alla preghiera e non prendere cibo o aver tempo per dormire? O bisogna dunque dire che prega sempre e non viene meno colui che non cessa ogni giorno di lodare e supplicare il Signore alle ore canoniche secondo il rito della tradizione della Chiesa con i salmi e le preghiere consuete e questo è ciò che diceva il salmista: Benedirò il Signore in ogni tempo, sempre la sua lode nella mia bocca (Sal 33). O certamente tutte le cose, che il giusto compie e dice secondo Dio, devono essere considerate come preghiera. Poiché infatti il giusto senza interruzione compie ciò che è giusto, per questo il giusto prega senza interruzione, né mai il giusto cessa dal pregare, se non cessa dall'essere giusto. ... Questa stessa vedova può portare l'immagine della Chiesa, che sembra sola fino a che non venga il Signore, che tuttavia anche ora nel segreto ha cura di lei. (Beda il Venerabile)"

"Il Signore esaudisce prontamente la fede che è stata messa a prova.

L'attesa di Dio non è dunque un ritardo, ma strumento per la purificazione dei cuori da parte del Padre che è impaziente di esaudire i suoi figli fedeli."
