ON ACQUIRING PATIENCE AND BATTLING AGAINST EVIL DESIRES

The Learner: Lord God, I can see that patience is something vitally necessary to me, because this life abounds in circumstances that thwart our happiness. No matter how carefully I endeavour to live in peace, my days must have their share of conflict and sorrow.

2. The Beloved: That is so, My son; but the kind of peace I want you to aim at is not one in which temptations are not present, or difficulties not felt. The time when you may reckon you have found peace is when you have been harassed by various temptations and put to the proof by much adversity. If you say you cannot stand much suffering, how are you going to stand the fire of purgatory? You should always choose the lesser of two evils. To escape eternal punishment in the world to come, you should strive to bear patiently for God's sake the evils of this present life. Do you suppose worldly men have next to nothing in the way of suffering? Put the question to those whose lives are a round of pleasures; you will find you are wrong.

3. All the same, you say, they have a lot of fun and follow their own sweet will, so that when they do come up against trouble it doesn't weigh very heavily upon them.

4. Granted; but even supposing they have whatever they desire, how long do you think that's going to last? Those rich in this world's goods, you know, will fade out like smoke, leave not a memory behind of the pleasures that once were theirs. Even during their lifetime, when such pleasures are the goal of their existence, their enjoyment of them is tinged with bitterness, boredom and fear. The very objects from which they obtain pleasure often repay them with pain and unhappiness. In this they are only getting their due; those who throw off all restraint in their pursuit of pleasure cannot expect to enjoy it without feelings of shame, without finding the sweetness of it turning sour to the taste. Ah, how quickly gone, how false such pleasures are, how uncontrolled, how vile! And yet their devotees are so fuddled by them, so blinded, they fail to see the way they are going; like dumb beasts, they snatch at the paltry pleasures of this corruptible life, and so bring upon themselves the death of their souls. Do you, then, My son, not follow the counsel of appetite; turn your back on your own liking. Let all your longing be fixed in the Lord; so He will give you what your heart desires.

5. If you would know what true pleasure is, if you long for a greater outpouring of My comfort, I tell you this: despise all worldly things, cut out of your life all base forms of pleasure, and you will be blessed for it, be more than repaid by the comfort with which I shall flood your heart. The more you withdraw from the comfort you find in anything created, the sweeter and stronger will be the comfort you find in Me. To begin with, you will not reach this state without a hard struggle and a certain amount of pain. Lifelong habits will bar the way, but better ones will wrest the victory from them. The body will complain, but fervour of spirit will hold it in check. The Old Serpent will goad you and work upon your feelings, but prayer will put him to flight; moreover, by taking up some useful kind of work you will be blocking one of his broadest means of access to your heart.

(From The Imitation of Christ by Thomas a Kempis)

+Jason Boodram

PLEASE NOTE that Holy Mass will be at 9 a.m. on Monday, Sept. 3rd and that the Parish Office is closed.

DO YOU WISH TO BECOME CATHOLIC OR KNOW SOMEONE ELSE WHO DOES? The program will begin in the fall. Please call the office to register.

CELEBRATING THE YEAR OF FAITH On October 11th, the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council, the Church will begin the observance of the Year of Faith. To commemorate this event, Mass will be offered at 7 p.m. We also invite you to join us in reading St. Augustine's Confessions, the account of his personal journey of faith. This book is the first autobiography ever written and is both a spiritual and a literary classic. We will meet every second Wednesday beginning October 17th to March 6th in the Parish Hall. Two seminar times: 1:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Registration fee: $20. To register or for further information, please call the parish office.

CWL General Membership Meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 11th beginning with Holy Mass at 7 p.m. All women of the Parish are invited to attend and discern if this is the Church Ministry you would like to get involved with. Please join us.

OUR LADY'S PSALTER: The Rosary of the Mystery of Christ, A More Ancient Way of Praying the Rosary

by Fr. Marco Testa is available at the Parish Office. This volume, reminiscent of the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary, contains the oldest rosary clausulae in Latin and their English counterparts. It brings together different traditional elements of a prayer that over centuries has evolved and which continues to form the faithful in the Gospel. By combining these deeply spiritual and theological formulae with the Hail Mary, the more ancient form of the rosary is wedded to its more recent expression. There are three Psalters or groupings of fifty meditations in this collection. The clausular rosary consecrates a particular mystery of the life of Jesus to each Hail Mary. Since this form of prayer aims to lead towards contemplation of the Mystery of Christ, the quantity of prayers is not what matters. It is for you to determine the number of themes you wish to contemplate. This ancient form of the Rosary is eminently suited to the observance of the Year of Faith.

SUNDAY SCHOOL Registration for children in Gr. 1 through 7 who attend public and private school will be on Sunday, September 9th from 8:45 - 12:15 in the Church Hall. We are also looking for volunteers. Sunday School starts on Sept. 16th from 8:45-10:30 a.m. If you are interested, please contact Elizabeth Follows at 905-237-6272 or followselizabeth@gmail.com.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD for children 3-7 yrs old. A Montessori approach to learning about our faith. Sessions begin in October. If interested, see our specially designed room & materials at the north end of our parish hall. To register or for info, please call Anita at 905-508-9275. Space is limited.

THE BRIGITTINE ROSARY The Brigittine (or "Saint Bridget") Rosary which the Discalced Carmelites adopted as their habit rosary looks similar to a regular Rosary, but with an extra decade. The resultant seven Pater beads honor the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the sixty-three Ave Maria beads commemorate the sixty-three years it is believed the Blessed Mother lived on earth before her Assumption. The Brigittine Rosary is available for purchase in the Parish Office.

NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY PRAYER

O Virgin immaculate, who by a singular privilege of grace was preserved from original sin, look with pity upon our separated brethren, who are nevertheless your children, and call them back to the center of unity. Not a few of them, although separated from the Church, have kept a certain veneration for you; and as generous as you are, reward them for it, by obtaining for them the grace of conversion.

You were the conqueror of the infernal serpent from the first instant of your existence; renew even now, for it is now more necessary than ever before, your ancient triumphs; glorify your divine Son, bring back to Him the sheep that have strayed from the one fold and place them once more under the guidance of the universal Shepherd who holds the place of your Son on earth; let it be your glory, O Virgin who destroys all heresies, to restore unity and peace once more to all the Christian people.

2 settembre 2012- 22^a del tempo ordinario

“Seguiamo dunque il Signore come servi e sopportiamo le maledizioni per poter essere benedetti! Quando ascolterò parole insolenti o malvagie rivolte contro di me con oca moderazione, risponderò io stesso con eguale amarezza, oppure sarò tormentato da una muta impazienza. Però se dopo aver ricevuto qualche maledizione io colpirò, come potrò seguire l'insegnamento del Signore, dove è stato insegnato che l'uomo è inquinato non dai vasi, ma dalle cose che escono dalla sua bocca? (Tertulliano, La pazienza 8.3-5).”

“Alcuni ritengono che i cattivi pensieri siano ispirati dal diavolo e non dalla loro stessa volontà. Il diavolo può essere collaboratore e istigatore dei cattivi pensieri, non può esserne l'autore (Beda, Comm. a Mc 2.7).”

“La vita interiore è il fondamento ultimo: la formazione si fa dall'interno verso l'esterno. Più un'anima è profondamente attaccata a Dio, più è totalmente abbandonata alla grazia, maggiore sarà la sua influenza sull'edificazione della Chiesa (E. Stein, in La persona unificata, 87).”

Per Gesù l'essenziale nella vita non è la legge e la sua esecuzione o non esecuzione, ma il cuore, cioè l'amore con cui si osserva la legge, la volontà di seguire lui come maestro e fonte di vera vita, come modello e forza di autentico amore al prossimo. Senza questo cuore, l'esecuzione della legge diventa pesante e senza gioia, o una copertura momentanea al nostro vuoto d'amore. Tutto dunque è fondamentalmente questione di amore, di espressione d'amore, di alimento d'amore: di un amore da uomo, da uomo alleato di Dio e dei suoi fratelli.

“Nella tua misericordia hai tanto amato gli uomini da mandare il tuo Figlio come redentore a condividere in tutto, fuorché nel peccato, la nostra condizione umana. Così hai amato in noi ciò che amavi nel Figlio e in lui, servo obbediente, hai ricostruito l'alleanza distrutta dalla disobbedienza del peccato” (prefazio del tempo ordinario, VII).
