LET US GIVE CHILDREN A FUTURE OF PEACE

Let us give children a future of peace! This is the confident appeal which I make to men and women of good will, and I invite everyone to help children to grow up in an environment of authentic peace. This is their right, and it is our duty....

Children in the school of peace. Little children very soon learn about life. They watch and imitate the behaviour of adults. They rapidly learn love and respect for others, but they also quickly absorb the poison of violence and hatred. Family experiences strongly condition the attitudes which children will assume as adults. Consequently, if the family is the place where children first encounter the world, the family must be for children the first school of peace.

Parents have an extraordinary opportunity to help their sons and daughters to become aware of this great treasure: the witness of their mutual love. It is by loving each other that they enable the child, from the very first moment of its existence, to grow up in peaceful surroundings, imbued with the positive values which make up the family's true heritage: mutual respect and acceptance, listening, sharing, generosity, forgiveness. Thanks to the sense of working together which these values foster, they provide a true education for peace and make the child, from its earliest years, an active builder of peace.

Children share with their parents and brothers and sisters the experience of life and hope. They see how life's inevitable trials are met with humility and courage, and they grow up in an atmosphere of esteem for others and respect for opinions different from their own. It is above all in the home that, before ever a word is spoken, children should experience God's love in the love which surrounds them. In the family they learn that God wants peace and mutual understanding among all human beings, who are called to be one great family....

Children are not a burden on society; they are not a means of profit or people without rights. Children are precious members of the human family, for they embody its hopes, its expectations and its potential.

Jesus, the way of peace. Peace is a gift of God; but men and women must first accept this gift in order to build a peaceful world. People can do this only if they have a childlike simplicity of heart. This is one of the most profound and paradoxical aspects of the Christian message: to become child-like is more than just a moral requirement but a dimension of the mystery of the Incarnation itself.

The Son of God did not come in power and glory, as He will at the end of the world, but as a child, needy and poor. Fully sharing our human condition in all things but sin (cf. Heb 4:15), He also took on the frailty and hope for the future which are part of being a child. After that decisive moment for the history of humanity, to despise childhood means to despise the One who showed the greatness of His love by humbling Himself and forsaking all glory in order to redeem mankind.

Jesus identified with the little ones. When the Apostles were arguing about who was the greatest, He "took a child and put him by His side, and said to them, 'Whoever receives this child in My name, receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives him who sent Me'" (Lk9:47-48). The Lord also forcefully warned us against giving scandal to children: "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened round his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea". Jesus asked the disciples to become "children" again. When they tried to turn away the little ones who were pressing in upon Him, He said indignantly: "Let the children come to Me, do not hinder them; for to such belongs the Kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it" (Mk 10:14-15). Jesus thus turned around our way of thinking. Adults need to learn from children the ways of God: seeing children's capacity for complete trust, adults can learn to cry out with true confidence, "Abba, Father!".

To become like a little child — with complete trust in the Father and with the meekness taught by the Gospel - is not only an ethical imperative; it is a reason for hope. Even where the difficulties are so great as to lead to discouragement and the power of evil so overwhelming as to dishearten, those who can rediscover the simplicity of a child can begin to hope anew. This is possible above all for those who know they can trust in a God who desires harmony among all people in the peaceful communion of his Kingdom. It is also possible for those who, though not sharing the gift of faith, believe in the values of forgiveness and solidarity and see in them - not without the hidden action of the Spirit - the possibility of renewing the face of the earth.

Pope John Paul II, Vatican, 8 December 1995.

SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Monday, Oct. 1st, St. Therese of the Child Jesus, Virgin, Doctor. St. Therese was born at Alençon, France in 1873.

She entered the Carmelite Monastery in Lisieux at the age of 15. There she lived a life of evangelical simplicity, humility and trust in God. Her autobiography, Story of a Soul is a spiritual classic.

Tuesday, Oct. 2, Guardian Angels. The word angel means messenger. Angels are God's messengers assigned to help us while always remaining in the presence of God (cf. Matt 18:10).

Thursday, Oct. 4, St. Francis of Assisi, religious. St. Francis is one of the best known and most followed saints. He took the words of Jesus literally and founded an Order of nuns, friars, and lay associates which is the largest in the Church.

October 5th, First Friday of the Month. We honour the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. The Most Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration from 12 noon until just before the 7:00 p.m. Mass.

October 6th, First Saturday of the Month. We honour the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

BLESSING OF ANIMALS on the FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS,

Thursday, Oct. 4th at 7 p.m. St. Francis of Assisi is known among other things as a patron saint of animals because of his love and reverence for God's creation. On his feast day, with the blessing of animals we have an opportunity to thank God for our pets who provide us with so much love and comfort. This is a good opportunity for parents to teach their children respect for the created order. All pet owners and even non-pet owners are welcome to join us on the south corner of the church lawn, weather permitting. If raining, please go to the Parish Hall.

CELEBRATING THE YEAR OF FAITH On October 11th, the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council, the Church will begin the observance of the Year of Faith. To commemorate this event, Mass will be offered at 7 p.m. We also invite you to join us in reading St. Augustine's Confessions, the account of his personal journey of faith. This book is the first autobiography ever written and is both a spiritual and a literary classic. We will meet every second Wednesday beginning October 17th to March 6th in the Parish Hall. Two seminar times: 1:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Registration fee: $20. To register or for further information, please call the parish office.

SUNDAY SCHOOL For all students in Grades 1-7. Please come to the Parish Hall at 8:45 a.m. to register. For info call Elizabeth at 905-237-6272.

DO YOU WISH TO BECOME CATHOLIC OR KNOW SOMEONE ELSE WHO DOES? Adults interested in becoming Catholics or deepening their faith are invited to attend our Tuesday classes at 7:30 p.m. downstairs in the Conference Room. For those interested in becoming Catholics, please register as soon as possible.

OUR LADY'S PSALTER: The Rosary of the Mystery of Christ. A More Ancient Way of Praying the Rosary by Fr. Marco Testa is available at the Parish Office. This ancient form of the Rosary is eminently suited to the observance of the Year of Faith.

ARCHDIOCESAN PASTORAL PLAN This weekend, as we celebrate the Feast of St. Michael, patron saint of the archdiocese of Toronto, we are distributing copies of a pastoral letter from Cardinal Thomas Collins. Please take a moment to read the Cardinal's letter and pray for the ongoing work of all those involved in this process.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD for children 3-7 yrs old. A Montessori approach to learning about our faith. Sessions begin in October. If interested, please call Anita at 905-508-9275. Space is limited.

LIFE CHAIN SUNDAY on Sept. 30th, 2 p.m. -3 p.m. at the corner of Yonge & Major Mackenzie. It takes only an hour and all you have to do is stand quietly with others holding a sign with a simple message. And as you stand, you can quietly pray for the conversion of our leaders. Join us as we witness for the millions of unborn lost in Canada through abortion and to silently and prayerfully intercede to the Lord to end abortion and heal our nation.

ROSARY APOSTOLATE The Rosary Apostolate in the Schools is seeking volunteers who have devotion to the Mother of God and who are willing to visit our elementary schools to pray the rosary with the children once a month. Training will be provided. If interested, please contact Carole at 905-770-8584 or Laura at 905-737-6457.

*"Se il tuo occhio, la tua mano e il tuo piede ti scandalizzano -come hai sentito nel Vangelo- tagliali e gettali via. Chiunque ti è caro, chiunque è assai stimato da te, tienilo per grande, tienilo come tuo membro amato fino a quando non comincerà a scandalizzarti, cioè a spingerti a commettere qualche male. State a sentire: questo è lo scandalo. ...Ascolta il Vangelo: quando il Signore parlò agli Apostoli della sua imminente passione, Pietro prese ad esortarlo ad evitarla, ma il Signore: Va' indietro, Satana - gli rispose- tu mi sei di scandalo (Mt 16,23). In una parola, il Signore, che ti ha dato l'esempio di come vivere, non solo ti ha insegnato che cos'è lo scandalo ma anche in qual modo si deve evitarlo. Poco prima aveva detto a Pietro: Beato sei tu Simone, figlio di Giovanni, mostrando così ch'era suo membro. Ma quando cominciò ad essere di scandalo, Cristo tagliò quel membro. Poi lo fece tornare come prima e lo ristabilì come suo membro. Sarà dunque per te uno scandalo chi prende l'iniziativa di persuaderti a fare qualcosa di male... Che farai? È un occhio, è una mano. Tagliali e gettali lontano da te. Che vuol dire: Tagliali e gettali lontano da te? Non dargli retta. Questo significa... In effetti le nostre membra formano un'unità; vivono, sono legate insieme nel nostro corpo in virtù del loro accordo. Dov'è il disaccordo, lì c'è morte o ferita. È dunque un tuo membro: devi amarlo. Ma se ti scandalizza, Taglialo e gettalo via da te. Non dargli retta, allontanalo dalle tue orecchie, forse tornerà corretto (Agostino, dal Discorso 81, 4)."*

"In più, benché tra gli uomini vi siano giuste diversità, l'uguale dignità delle persone richiede che si giunga ad una condizione più umana e giusta della vita. Infatti le troppe disuguaglianze economiche e sociali, tra membri e tra popoli dell'unica famiglia umana, suscitano scandalo e sono contrarie alla giustizia sociale, all'equità, alla dignità della persona umana, nonché alla pace sociale e internazionale. Le istituzioni umane, sia private sia pubbliche, si sforzano di mettersi al servizio della dignità e del fine dell'uomo, nello stesso tempo combattendo strenuamente contro ogni forma di servitù sociale e politica, e difendendo i fondamentali diritti degli uomini sotto qualsiasi regime politico (Conc. Vat. II, Cost. Pastorale Gaudium et spes, 29, cpv. 3-4)."

"Ogni giorno del nostro pellegrinaggio sulla terra è un dono sempre nuovo del tuo amore per noi, è un pegno della vita immortale, poiché possediamo fin da ora le primizie del tuo Spirito, nel quale hai risuscitato Gesù Cristo dai morti, e viviamo nell'attesa che si compia la beata speranza nella Pasqua eterna del tuo regno" (prefazio VI del tempo ordinario).
