The Great Sunday

*The seven weeks from Easter to Pentecost are celebrated as one great east Day.
St. Athanasius called them "the great Sunday."
Christians sing the
"Alleluia" during these days in their rejoicing.*

Living the Gospel by evangelizing our faith in the greater world

St. Anthony's parish in the Diocese of Guntur in India has nine mission stations which are between 10-15 kilometres away from the parish. There are nearly 350 Catholic families and 500 children going to school from these areas. As the mission stations are a distance from the parish, the faithful do not experience many religious activities. Father Mayakuntala Kumar, pastor of the parish, with the support of the Pastoral Mission Fund and ShareLife, is conducting a Children Faith Formation Camp to help the children to become rooted in the Catholic faith, With our support, Father Kumar is helping to evangelize the faith not only for today, but for the future as well.

CAN ONE RISE FROM THE DEAD?

Does not the very fact that Christ was born in a stranger's cave and buried in a stranger's grave prove that human "birth and death are equally foreign to Him? Look about at nature. Is not the springtime the Easter Day of the Good Friday of winter? Has not all death within itself the germs of life?

Sunday morning came, and it was one of calm, like the sleep of innocents, and the clear, benign air seemed almost as if it had been stirred by angels' wings. Mary walked in the garden and someone near her spoke a word, and pronounced it longingly, wistfully, in that touching and unforgettable voice which had called her so many times: "Mary." And to this one and only word, she made an answer, a word and only one: "Rabboni." And as she fell at His knees in the dewy grass and clasped in her hands those bare feet, she saw two scars, two red-lined marks of nails — for Christ was now walking in the glory of His new Easter morn.

That was the first Easter Day. Centuries have whirled away since, and on this new Easter Day as I turn from that garden to the altar, I behold placed over the tabernacle, on this Resurrection Day, the image, not of a Risen Savior, but the image of a dying one, to teach me that Christ lives over again in His Church, and that the Church, like Christ, not only lives, not only dies, but always rises from the dead. She is in love with death as a condition of birth; and with her, as with Christ, unless there is a Good Friday in her life, there will never be an Easter Sunday; unless there is the crown of thorns there will never be the halo of light; and unless there is the Cross there will never be the empty tomb. In other words, every now and then the Church must be crucified by an unbelieving world and buried as dead, only to rise again. She never does anything but die, and for that peculiar reason she never does anything but live. Every now and then the very life seems to have gone out of her; she is palled with death; her blood seems to have been sapped out of her; her enemies seal the tomb, roll a stone in front of her grave, and say: "The Church will never rise again!" But somehow or other she does rise again. ~ from The Divine Romance: Dying And Behold We Live by Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen.

Fr Marc, Fr Nieman and the staff of St. Joseph parish would like to wish everyone a wonderful and joy filled Easter 2017.

Also a special Thank You to those who prepared our beautiful church and altar, the lectors, altar servers and the choirs whose song and melody lift us higher.

2017 ORDINANDI

Rev. Mr. Antonello Murgia, 41, was born and raised in Italy to a Catholic family. Shortly after Confirmation, he abandoned the practice of the faith but at age 17 had a profound encounter with the gratuitous love of Christ through the Neocatechumenal Way. He worked as a lawyer for five years and joined the Redemptoris Mater Missionary Seminary in 2009. He firmly hopes to bring to everyone the same gratuitous love that he received from the Lord.
