SAINT OF THE WEEKSt. Faustina Kowalska*

RELIGIOUS | MYSTIC | APOSTLE OF DIVINE MERCY

Jesus appeared to St. Faustina with rays of light, one red the other white, coming from His heart, saying, "Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature, 'Jesus, I trust in You.'" He asked her to spread the message of His Divine Mercy throughout the world and promised, "Anyone who venerates this image will someday join me in heaven. I desire that there be a Feast of Mercy..." It is from these visions that we have the Divine Mercy image and Feast this upcoming weekend.

The Lord is risen, it is true! Through our baptism He calls us to proclaim new life to the world. Pray for those who herald the Good News as priests, brothers, and sisters. If you think God is calling you to a religious vocation, contact Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997, vocations@archtoronto.org

The High Point Of The Year

Through this yearly cycle, the Catechism of the Catholic Church explains, "the various aspects of the one Paschal mystery unfold" (ccc 1171). The Easter Triduum holds a special place in the liturgical year because it marks the culmination of the yearly celebration in proclaiming the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, "reaches its high point in the Easter Vigil, and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday" (par 19).

Just as Sunday is the high point of the week, Easter is the high point of the year. The meaning of the great feast is revealed and anticipated throughout the Triduum, which brings the people of God into contact — through liturgy, symbol, and sacrament — with the central events of the life of Christ: the Last Supper, His trial and crucifixion, His time in the tomb, and His Resurrection from the dead. In this way, "the mystery of the Resurrection, in which Christ crushed death, permeates with its powerful energy our old time, until all is subjected to him" (ccc 1169). During these three days of contemplation and anticipation the liturgies emphasize the sacrificial death of Christ on the Cross, and the sacraments of baptism and the Eucharist, by which the faithful enter into the life-giving Passion of Christ and grow in hope of eternal life in Him. ~ CARLE OLSON

Living the Gospel by supporting vocations

Martin Dicuango had a life-changing encounter when he visited Serra House, a residence run by St. Augustine's Seminary for those discerning a priestly vocation. He is now a third-year theology student at St. Augustine's. "I thank ShareLife for supporting St. Augustine's Seminary," says Martin, "where young men like myself, after experiencing the love of Christ, are joyfully preparing for ordination to the priesthood."
