PARISH MISSION: THE FULLNESS OF PURPOSE

Dynamic Canadian speaker, Ken Yasinski, (featured on Lighthouse Catholic Media) will be leading a 3-day parish mission, specifically designed to help re-evangelize the baptized. This Mission was created to help participants encounter Jesus, through the life changing proclamation of the Gospel and Eucharistic Adoration, and an invitation to commit to live for Christ, and for our faith. Come be inspired to live your full potential in life, April 23, 24 and 25, starting at 7 pm each evening in the Church.

ShareLife

Living the Gospel by the vulnerable in our society

Tim and Donna met 25 years ago and have made the Friday and Saturday social nights at Our Place a regular part of their lives. Their intellectual capacity is somewhat limited but they do maintain their own independent apartments. While Tim is currently caring for his aging mother following her recent surgery, Donna is able to support Tim by cooking meals and offering caring attention. As Tim overcomes some social shyness in his own life, he also takes cares of some of Donna's daily needs with household chores, and working on the computer. The support role ShareLife plays enables Our Place to be a caring partner to these vulnerable people.

ShareLife funded agencies like Our Place helps many intellectually disabled men and women through compassionate and caring support.

THE CHURCH ALWAYS RISES AGAIN

At least a dozen times in history, the world has buried the Church and each time she has come to life again. I shall mention but a few such instances.

In the days of the Roman persecution the Church, had to dig into the caves of the earth. There, under the foundation of Rome's proudest temples, under roads that rocked with the tramp of Rome's resistless legions, these children of God were nourishing themselves on the Bread of Life, fortifying their bodies as well as their souls, for the day when they would be led to the "thumbs-down" crowd of the Roman Colosseum to testify to their faith, even with their blood. The day came; they were led into the center of that great amphitheater with enemies round about. There was no escape, except from above — but that was enough. They met death with a smile upon their lips. Caesar's minions scattered fresh sands to hide their blood, but could not still their voice. It rose from the din of that arena; it entered into the very chancery of God's Justice; it pierced the mist of undawned ages with no uncertain challenge: "In our blood has been mingled the blood of the Living God — dying and behold we live." Roman swords blunted by massacre no longer fitted their sheaths; the wild beasts overfed on the living flesh of the Church lost their craving for food — but still the bloody warfare went on. Caesar was certain he had conquered. He rejoiced that the Church was dead. Her life was sapped and drained; she could never survive the Roman sword. A stone was rolled before the door. The Church would never rise again. And as they set their watch, and even as they watched, the Church like her Risen Savior came from the grave of the Catacombs and was seen walking in the glory of her new Easter Morn. ~ from The Divine Romance: Dying And Behold We Live by Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen.
