ShareLife
Living the Gospel by supporting ShareLife....
“The ShareLife campaign provides for the needs of our social service agencies, helps to evangelize the Gospel to brothers and sisters in Christ across the world, and supports the education of our clergy. It is important that we continue to support the ShareLife appeal, to provide for the needs of the marginalized both here in our communities and around the world. Sometimes the results are obvious and sometimes they’re invisible but, always they make a tangible difference in the lives of the people we are helping. Please prayerfully consider how you can be supportive today on ShareLife Sunday.” —Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto.

Young People
That young people may respond generously to their vocations and seriously consider offering themselves to God in the priesthood or consecrated life.

I WILL RAISE YOU FROM YOUR GRAVES

Our April journey to Easter begins with the promise made to Israel through Ezekiel, in the vision of the valley of dry bones: “I will raise you from your graves.” The vision granted to Ezekiel is the first time that the resurrection from the dead, God’s final and total overcoming of the power of death and the injustice and hatred that flow from it, is made to Israel. In John’s gospel, Jesus raises Lazarus from his grave as the last of his signs, to show that the promise made through Ezekiel is about to be fulfilled.

But the resurrection comes in an unexpected way, as Palm Sunday reminds us: Jesus chooses to enter Jerusalem on a donkey: he will be the king promised by the prophet Zechariah, “humble and riding on a donkey.” Paul picks up this theme in his celebration of Jesus’ total gift of himself in his self-emptying on the cross, and Matthew affirms, in a sentence that is often overlooked, that the moment of Jesus’ death on the cross is the very moment when “the tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised.” When the Roman troops see “the earthquake and what took place” they testify that “truly this man was God’s Son!”

The celebrations of Holy Week and the Triduum invite us to enter more deeply into this Passover journey through death to fullness of Life, to follow Christ along this way of passion, death and resurrection step by step.

2017 ORDINANDI

Rev. Mr. Jeremias Inoc, 44, was born in the Philippines and is the youngest of four children. He began to hear the call to the priesthood during his undergraduate studies and it followed him to Canada where he encountered priests, parishioners, and even complete strangers asking whether he was considering a vocation to the priesthood. He worked as a Chemical engineer and moved to Canada in 2002. Over time, his desire for the priesthood got stronger and stronger and continued to persist. Meanwhile, he worked as a technician and also volunteered at St. Mary's Parish in Brampton as an RCIA Coordinator. He is grateful to the parish priests who helped him discern and answer this call. He entered St. Augustine's Seminary in 2010, and now looks forward to his ordination in May for the Archdiocese of Toronto.

FEATURED LIGHTHOUSE CD

THIS CHANGES EVERYTHING - Many religions make contrasting claims about Jesus. Even different Christian denominations can't decide what they believe. So how do we know what's true? In this talk, Ken Yasinski gets the heart of the issue by looking at what Jesus said about Himself and the impact this has on us.
