The Sacred Paschal Triduum

Through his Paschal Mystery, the Lord Jesus redeemed the human race and gave perfect glory to the Father. By dying, Christ destroyed our death; by rising, he restored our life.

For this reason, the Easter Triduum, when we celebrate the suffering, death and resurrection of our Lord, is the high point of the Liturgical Year. The Easter Solemnity is to the year what Sunday is to the week.

The celebration of the Easter Triduum opens with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its climax in the Easter Vigil, and closes with Evening Prayer II on Easter Sunday.

ShareLife

Living the Gospel by supporting the Deaf community

Taavi wasn't engaged at his school or in extracurricular sports and as a Deaf person, he faced obstacles trying to join his hearing peers. His mom encouraged him to try to participate in the Deaf community. His life changed when he joined a Deaf basketball fun day hosted by Silent Voice and met Mike, Director of the Silent Voice Child and Family Program. He joined a Deaf sports team, began a co-op position with Silent Voice in his 4th year of high school, and was hired as a counselor in the Silent Voice Sign Language Summer day camp. He continues to volunteer at Silent Voice and says, "I'm grateful to ShareLife – supported Silent Voice and want to be a role model for Deaf kids, like Mike was to me." Last year more than 600 deaf children received help through ShareLife-supported Silent Voice's Sign Language Summer Camps.

Next ShareLife Sunday is May 7, 2017

GOOD FRIDAY REFLECTION

...Jesus will lead us to Calvary and to the glory of Easter morning, but only if we take up our cross and follow...

On Good Friday ... You will be invited up to adore the wood of the cross on which hung our salvation. Do not approach empty handed – for that would be a terrible waste. Take your own cross with your pains and burdens ... Bring your sins to the cross and leave them there with Him – those committed long ago and those of yesterday. Place them on His cross. Take with you your confusion, hurts, resentment and anger – give it to Him. Bring your fears, your illness, all your maladies, grab hold of them and give them to the man of sorrows ... Come forward and touch the cross, embrace it, kiss it – place your hurts there; The times when family hurt you, when friends betrayed you, when those around you were rude or hurtful. Take these pains and leave them with Jesus. Don't miss this opportunity to encounter Jesus to experience his love and divine mercy. For the total self-giving of Christ on the cross is also an invitation for each of us to give ourselves to God...

The Cross expresses a love more powerful than sin and death. It is in fact God's most powerful condescension, a touch of eternal love on our wounds.

~ from Homily of Fr. Seamus Hogan, Good Friday 2016.

Good Friday Pontifical Collection for the Benefit of the Holy Land

The Pontifical Collection for the benefit of the Holy Places is scheduled this year on Good Friday April 14, 2017. Our parish, once a year on Good Friday, is called to support Christians in the Holy Land. Many Christians in the Holy Land depend on the collection for their lives.

As a Pontifical collection requested by Pope Francis, the annual Good Friday Collection offers a direct link for parishioners to be witnesses of peace and to help protect the Holy Places. When you donate on Good Friday, you are supporting Christians in the Holy Land. "He, who does acts of mercy, let him do them with cheerfulness." Rm 12, 8

2017 ORDINANDI

Rev. Mr. Matthew McCarthy was born in Brampton to a devout Catholic family and was a regular altar server at his home parish. He grew up playing competitive sports and then studied Kinesiology at York University, where he competed a B.Sc. in 2009.

During his university years, he joined the Catholic Chaplaincy at York, where, for the first time, he began to wonder if the Lord was asking him to consider the priesthood and began to see the beauty of this vocation.

PARISH MISSION: THE FULLNESS OF PURPOSE

Dynamic Canadian speaker, Ken Yasinski, (featured on Lighthouse Catholic Media) will be leading a 3-day parish mission, specifically designed to help re-evangelize the baptized. This Mission was created to help participants encounter Jesus, through the life changing proclamation of the Gospel and Eucharistic Adoration, and an invitation to commit to live for Christ, and for our faith. Come be inspired to live your full potential in life, April 23, 24 and 25, starting at 7 pm each evening in the Church.
