THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Wednesday, Sept 2, Blessed André Grasset was a Canadian priest who worked in France. He was one of the 191 Martyrs of September who died in the French revolution refusing to take the oath of the civil constitution as it put priests under control of the state.

Thursday, Sept 3, St. Gregory the Great a Roman noble was governor of Rome while still young. He reformed the clergy and the liturgy, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He sent his monks to work for the conversion of England. He is known for strengthening respect for doctrine and "Gregorian" chant draws its name from him. He died A. D. 604, worn out by austerities and toils. "It is impossible to conceive what would have been the confusion, the lawlessness, the chaotic state of the Middle Ages without the medieval papacy; and of the medieval papacy, the real father is Gregory the Great."

Friday, Sept 4, Blessed Dina Bélanger of Quebec, like her counterpart St. Faustina, lived only 33 years and died of tuberculosis. At age 13, she "consecrated her whole life to Jesus through the Blessed Virgin Mary." She emphasized "the indwelling of Christ in the soul that brings the soul into the life of the Blessed Trinity, and that leads the soul to undertake a life of reparative suffering, in and with Christ." Blessed Dina's motto was "To Love, and Let Jesus Have His Way."

SPECIAL MASS ON FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 11TH

The 7:30 pm Mass on Friday September 11th will be celebrated by his Grace, Filipe Neri Ferrão, the Archbishop of Goa and Daman.

Note: There will be NO BENEDICTION following Mass.

From the Pastor's Desk

Come to me all who labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest..... (Mk 11:28)

In an ever-changing world, with all the conflicts and a society marked increasingly by a culture of death, what we really need is a place that provides an emotional anchoring for the young, for adults, for families – essentially for all of us. Our Catholic Church is that place -- a centre of spirituality and community.

We are like the lost sheep; we have a need for meaning, for purpose, for forgiveness, for love. With the looming October federal election, we need to know how to make the right decisions; how to protect our family, our disabled or aging population, the unborn children, the marginalized, the poor; we need to know how to handle suffering, and how to have hope in our world. The Church is where our needs will be met, where we will find a sense of family, of belonging. When we know one another and know the joys and concerns we are each experiencing, we can pray for, support and minister to one another. As St. Augustine said, "One loving heart sets another on fire." Now you and I may know that the Church is a community, but emerging generations have never seen it that way. They've seen it as a list of rules, of old-fashioned traditions, but not as a loving community. Jesus drew enormous crowds without ever compromising His message. He was clear, practical and loving in presenting His Divine Law. The Ten Commandments, for example, constitute a 'moral code' for building an honest, ethical society. The lessons and values central to the Commandments are as relevant today as they were in the time of Moses and the Israelites. The values are found at the heart of who we are as children of God, in our quest for human rights, the right to life and the sustainability of the planet.

As servants rooted in the Word of God, we have an opportunity this Fall to stand up for our values and beliefs, as God says, "Be doers of the Word, not hearers only." We are called to become true witnesses of the Gospel. Together, we can courageously defend a culture that values life from its beginning until its natural end. Here in God's House, we are always welcomed, here our souls will be refreshed and our minds will find peace. Let God's Word fill your hearts and make of you a light in the darkness.

☮Peace, Fr. Marc-André Campbell
