FEAST OF THE WEEKST. PETER CANISIUSPatron Saint of Catholic Publishers

For many years during the Reformation, Dutch Jesuit Peter Canisius saw the students in his universities swayed by the flashy speeches and the well-written arguments of the Protestants. In April 1555, his famous catechism was published in Vienna at the request of King Ferdinand of Austria who also wanted to present true Catholic beliefs undistorted by fanatics. Peter approached Christian doctrine in two parts: wisdom -- including faith, hope, and charity -- and justice -- avoiding evil and doing good, linked by a section on sacraments. The book became one of the most successful religious bestsellers in Church history, and it was the most frequently issued publication by a Dutch author ever. After the Council of Trent the pope wanted to get the decrees of the Council to all the European bishops. The first envoys were robbed of the documents in hostile Protestant territory but because he was respected even by Protestants he was able to carry them to the Catholic bishops in those lands.

St Peter Canisius Pray for us !

3rd Sunday of Advent

We may wonder why John asks the question “Are you the one we are waiting for?” Is he now doubting his earlier conviction that Jesus is the Messiah, the One whose coming he had announced? Is he concerned that Jesus is not as forthright as he, John, had expected? This is unlikely, though it is possible that some of John’s followers were puzzled about Our Lord’s deeds. It is therefore likely that John sent them to Jesus for Him to reassure them of the truth which he did not doubt. John knew that Jesus was the Saviour, but he needed his own followers to learn from Jesus in person that He was fulfilling the prophecies of old.

O COME! Tuesday sees the beginning of the final liturgical countdown to Christmas Day. Each evening at Vespers a special Antiphon is sung before Our Lady’s “Magnificat” which forms the high point of the service. These Antiphons all begin and end in the same way. They begin by calling on our Saviour (“O...”) adding one of His titles from the Prophets, going on to describe some special aspect of the title, before ending with a cry of earnest longing: “Come!”. ~ Fr Paul Dobson

TEAMS OF OUR LADY – COUPLES GROUPS

A call to all Catholic couples: One of the best ways to enrich your married spirituality and to grow in your walk with Jesus Christ is to join a team! Teams of Our Lady is a faith-filled community where couples pray, learn, study together and find spiritual support. A team is a group of 5-7 couples and a spiritual advisor that meets once a month and through practical steps and direction discover the richness of their marriage sacrament. We are currently looking for 2-7 married Catholic couples in Mississauga to complete a team or start a new team. Please email us to learn more about this ministry at: information.central@teamsfourlady.ca.
