THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Monday February 22 The feast of the Chair of Saint Peter at Rome has been celebrated from the early days of the Christian era and celebrates the unity of the Church. It brings to mind the mission of teacher and pastor conferred by Christ on Peter that continues in an unbroken line down to the present Pope.

Tuesday February 23, St. Polycarp, bishop of Smyrna (modern, Turkey), disciple of St. John the Apostle and friend of St. Ignatius of Antioch is one of the Apostolic Fathers of the early Church. Only one of his many letters has been preserved, the one he wrote to the Church of Philippi in Macedonia. In 156, at age 86, St Polycarp was martyred by burning in Smyrna.

Pope Francis Prayer Intentions for February 2016

Universal: CARE FOR CREATION,

That we may take good care of creation – a gift freely given cultivating and protecting it for future generations.

Evangelization: ASIA

That opportunities may increase for dialogue and encounter between the Christian faith and the peoples of Asia.

VOCATIONS

Pray to know how God wants to use your talents and abilities. Could it be He is calling you to consider the priesthood or religious life?

If God is calling you to a Church vocation, contact:
Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 or email: vocations@vocations.ca

1ST CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY FEED THE HUNGRY

The first of the corporal works of mercy is to feed the hungry. On the surface, this seems fairly straightforward. We can help the hungry in simple ways by making donations to the local food bank or, if we have the time, by helping at a local soup kitchen for the homeless. By buying lunch for a homeless man or woman on the streets or by supporting our own St Vincent de Paul group with their outreach to those in need.

In addition to this we can take the time to educate ourselves about the problem of hunger in the world, and use our voice and vote to petition and pressure our politicians to make the fight against world hunger more of a priority for our government.

Certainly today, people are not just hungry for the bread of the earth, but also for the spiritual food that Jesus came to give us, the Bread of Life, The Word of God. So we are also asked to learn his words and ways and then to share the faith, to go out and spread the gospel of the good news.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church - Number 2447

The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities.<sup>242</sup> Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting are spiritual works of mercy, as are forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently. The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead.<sup>243</sup> Among all these, giving alms to the poor is one of the chief witnesses to fraternal charity: it is also a work of justice pleasing to God.

ShareLife

Together we are continuing to work wonders...

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy”

Working wonders for those entering the priesthood...
 “I am aware that what is given to me here is because of the generosity of many benefactors, including ShareLife, to whom I am very grateful. Last year, I graduated from Philosophy at St. Philip neri Oratory with Summa Cum Laude, and this would not have been possible without the contribution of many benefactors. I am sure that whatever is given to me is for the sake of the mission that the Lord is preparing for me, and I thank ShareLife for their generous contribution to the work that God has prepared for me.” Simon Ibrahim, Redemptoris Mater seminarian.

At ShareLife-funded agencies such as Serra House, St. Augustine’s and Redemptoris Mater Seminaries, individuals undergo extensive theological education and practical field training. Through ShareLife, you are helping to sustain vocations for the priesthood and inspire discernment for God’s call. Last year ShareLife helped support 80 seminarians in their formation studies.

Sunday March 13, 2016 is ShareLife
