THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Monday, February 6: St. Paul Miki & Companions, Martyrs. St. Paul was the son of a Japanese military leader who joined the Jesuits and became known for his eloquent preaching. He and 25 other Catholics (that included Jesuit and Franciscan religious) were crucified on a hill near Nagasaki in 1597 during the persecution of Christians under the Taiko, Toyotomi Hideyoshi, ruler of Japan, in the name of the emperor.

Wednesday, February 8: St. Josephine Bakhita. Born in southern Sudan, she was kidnapped at the age of seven, sold into slavery and given the name Bakhita, which means fortunate. She was re-sold several times, finally in 1883 to Callisto Legnani, Italian consul in Khartoum, Sudan. He took her to Italy and gave her to the Michielis family to babysit their daughter, through whom Bakhita became acquainted with the Canossian Sisters. She was baptized and confirmed in 1890, taking the name Josephine. When the Michielis were to return to Africa they wanted to take Josephine with them, but she refused to go. During the ensuing court case, the Canossian sisters and the patriarch of Venice intervened on Josephine's behalf. The judge concluded that since slavery was illegal in Italy, she had actually been free since 1885. Josephine entered the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa in 1893 and made her profession three years later. She once said, "Be good, love the Lord, pray for those who do not know Him. What a great grace it is to know God!"

Monday Feb. 11: St. Scholastica (480 – 542) is the Patron Saint of Nuns & Religious women. She was the twin sister of St. Benedict, the Patriarch of Western monasticism and was dedicated to God from a young age. Inspired by Benedict's teaching, she devoted her life to seeking and serving God. She also is the founder of the women's branch of Benedictine Monasticism

FEBRUARY 11 – OUR LADY OF LOURDES

Three years after Pope Pius IX proclaimed the dogma of the Immaculate Conception, a series of visions were given to a poor young girl named Bernadette Soubirous, of a beautiful young woman who identified herself as "the Immaculate Conception". The first vision was on February 11, 1858. In one vision she was directed to drink from a spot where an underground stream suddenly gushed forth. Almost immediately cures were reported from drinking the water. Our Lady asked that a chapel be built on the spot and processions to be made to the grotto. Today the Basilica of the Rosary sits next to the chapel.

FEBRUARY 11 - WORLD DAY OF THE SICK

The Church's motherhood is a reflection of God's tender love of which the Prophet Isaiah speaks: "As one whom his mother comforts, / so I will comfort you; / you shall be comforted in Jerusalem" (Is 66: 13). It is a motherhood that speaks without words, that awakens in hearts, consolation, and deep joy, a joy that paradoxically lives side by side with pain, with suffering. The Church, like Mary, preserves within her the tragedies of humankind and the consolation of God, she keeps them together on the pilgrimage through history. The Church down the centuries has shown the signs of the love of God who continues to work great things in humble and simple people. Suffering, when accepted and offered up, and solidarity, when sincere and selfless: are these not perhaps miracles of love? Is not the courage to face evil unarmed like Judith with the power of faith and hope in the Lord alone a miracle that God's grace continuously inspires in so many people who spend their time and energy helping those who are suffering? For all these reasons we live a joy that does not forget suffering but rather understands it. In this manner the sick and the suffering in the Church are not only recipients of care and attention, but first and foremost they are protagonists of the pilgrimage of faith and hope, witnesses of the wonders of love, of the Paschal joy that blossoms from Christ's Cross and Resurrection.

~ From Homily of His Holiness BENEDICT XVI, February 11, 2010
