SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Anthony, Abbot

(251-356)

St. Anthony is generally considered to be the founder and father of organized Christian monasticism. Following his parents death and after ensuring his sister completed her education; he sold his possessions and gave the proceeds to the poor. He then moved to the desert to live alone, and soon many sought him out. He miraculously healed and counseled those who came to him. He founded two monasteries and briefly left his seclusion in 311 to fight Arianism, and to comfort the victims of the persecutions of Maximinus. His example led many to take up the monastic life.

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

The introductory rites of today's Mass reflect the feast which we celebrate today: The Baptism of Our Lord. The opening antiphon, drawn from psalm 50, tells of the cleansing power of God's grace which washes us clean of our sins. During this rite we can reflect on the words of St. Maximus of Turin who explains the meaning of Our Lord's Baptism in this way: "Christ is baptised, not that He may be sanctified in the waters, but that He Himself may sanctify the waters, and by His own purification may purify those streams which He touches. For the consecration of Christ is the greater consecration of another element. For when the Saviour is washed, then already for our baptism all water is cleansed and the font purified, that the grace of the font may be administered to the peoples that come after".

~ Fr Paul Dobson
