FEAST OF THE WEEK

The Conversion of Saint Paul

The Apostle to the Gentiles

St. Paul had a zealot's hatred of all Jesus stood for and so harassed the newborn Church with fervour until his supernatural encounter with the risen Christ on the road to Damascus. From then on, his only work was to "present everyone perfect in Christ" and his life became a tireless proclaiming and living out of the message of the cross: Christians die baptismally to sin and are buried with Christ; they are dead to all that is sinful and unredeemed in the world. They are made into a new creation, already sharing Christ's victory and someday to rise from the dead like him. Through this risen Christ the Father pours out the Spirit on them, making them completely new. completely new.

St. Paul, pray for us!

When John the Baptist

Recognized Our Lord as Saviour

The theme of our Lord's Baptism, which we celebrated last week as part of the Epiphany cycle of feasts, continues today with the Gospel reading which tells how St. John the Baptist witnessed to Our Lord as the One whose way he had been sent to prepare, and that he had only known for certain that Jesus is the Messiah at the time of His Baptism, when he saw the Holy Spirit descend like a dove upon our Lord. ~ Fr Paul Dobson

The Timeless Meaning of the Feminine by Gerturd Von le Fort. The war on womanhood, and
