SICKNESS AND HOLINESS

St. Mark's Gospel, which forms the usual Sunday Gospel reading throughout this year, begins not with Our Lord's infancy, but with His public ministry. Today's reading, still only in the first chapter of the Gospel, already shows Our Lord healing the sick, casting out the devil from the possessed, and preaching the good news throughout His native Galilee.

St. Mark, following the lead given by Our Lord in His teaching and His miracles, makes a strong connection between sickness and satan. Wherever Our Lord heals the sick, the lame and diseased of all kinds, He also casts out the power of the devil—often from the same persons. It has been customary in some circles to treat these accounts with skepticism. It has been suggested that St. Mark is being rather superstitious in connecting illness with the devil.

Of course, it would be going too far to suggest that every illness is caused directly by the devil. But then that is not what St. Mark does. He sees Our Lord's healing of the sick in these early days of His public ministry as a sign of something deeply hidden. The devils whom Our Lord casts out all want to speak and identify Him, because they knew who He was, yet He would not allow them to do so.

The reason why the devils want to speak out is that Our Lord is not simply a healer of the body, or even of the mind, in the way that a doctor, surgeon, neurologist or psychiatrist heals the body or mind. Our Lord has come into the world as the Saviour—the One who makes whole all that is broken in human nature. Mankind, the offspring of fallen Adam and Eve, is a being of body, mind and soul. Mankind has fallen into a state of confusion that embraces body, mind and soul, thanks to the disobedience of Adam and Eve.

So when Our Lord is confronted with sickness, He sees not merely disorders of the body and of the mind but also of the soul. These disorders are the result of the devil's cunning—he misled Eve and Adam into identifying their happiness with independence from God. Ever since then their descendants—all of us – have been affected. Our souls are diseased as much as our bodies. Christ has come to heal us entirely, not simply our souls, nor simply our bodies, but our whole nature. Of course, not every illness is related to a particular sin. Rather, illness is a phenomenon of life which results from sin entering into the world through the devil's hatred of God and of us, God's favoured creature.

Because God loved Adam and Eve so much, the devil out of envy set about destroying them and their descendants. Sin destroyed the original harmony of our nature in which God had created us. Only Our Lord can restore that harmony. Ultimately, illness will be destroyed when holiness has been re-established throughout the human race, which will fully happen in the Eternal Life for all the redeemed. Hence our Lord's healings are more than just the driving out of disease from a body or a mind—they are the making whole of human nature broken by sin. This is why the devils want to cry out in horror when they encounter Our Lord, because they know He has come to destroy their hold over mankind. The healings He works in these early days of His public ministry are the declaration that the long reign of sin, sickness and death is coming to an end.

~ Fr. Paul Dobson

A box will be set out in the front lobby of the church for drop offs, or cards can be dropped off into the lock box outside at the back doors (exit) of the church. All gift cards will be dropped off to the Sisters for distribution to the families so they can purchase what they wish in late Feb/early March.
