MASS IN THE EXTRAORDINARY FORM

 A Solemn High Mass for: The Epiphany of the Lord

 Will be held at St Joseph Parish on Tuesday Jan 6 at 7pm.

 The Mass will be celebrated according to the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite (Missal of 1962).

THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Wed. January 7, St. André Besette. Sickness and weakness dogged St. André from birth. The eighth of 12 children he was adopted at 12, when both parents had died, he became a farmhand. Various trades followed: shoemaker, baker, blacksmith—all failures. At 25, he applied for entrance into the Congregation of the Holy Cross. After a year's novitiate, he was not admitted because of his weak health but with the urging of Bishop Bourget he was finally received and given the humble job of doorkeeper at Notre Dame College in Montreal.

In his little room near the door, he spent much of the night on his knees. On his windowsill, facing Mount Royal, was a small statue of St. Joseph, to whom he had been devoted since childhood. When asked about it he said, "Some day, St. Joseph is going to be honored in a very special way on Mount Royal!" When he heard someone was ill, he visited to bring cheer and to pray with the sick person. He would rub the sick person lightly with oil taken from a lamp burning in the college chapel. Word of healing powers began to spread.

When an epidemic broke out at a nearby college, André volunteered to nurse. Not one person died. The trickle of sick people to his door became a flood. His superiors were uneasy; diocesan authorities were suspicious; doctors called him a quack. "I do not cure," he said again and again. "St. Joseph cures." In the end he needed four secretaries to handle the 80,000 letters he received each year.

The magnificent Oratory on Mount Royal took 50 years to build. The sickly boy who could not hold a job died at 92.

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

We joyfully celebrate his manifestation to the peoples of the entire world, represented by the Magi who came from the East to render homage to the King of the Jews. From its initial appearance, therefore, the light of Christ began to attract to himself the people "with whom he is pleased", of every tongue, people and culture. It is the power of the Holy Spirit that moves hearts and minds to seek truth, beauty, justice, peace. It is "men and women are on a journey of discovery which is humanly unstoppable - a search for the truth and a search for a person to whom they might entrust themselves". Men and women of every generation need on their pilgrim journey to be directed: what star can we therefore follow?

After coming to rest "over the place where the child was", the purpose of the star that guided the Magi ended, but its spiritual light is always present in the Word of the Gospel, which is still able today to guide every person to Jesus. This same Word, which is none other than the reflection of Christ, true man and true God, is authoritatively echoed by the Church for every well-disposed heart. The Church too, therefore, carries out the mission of the star for humanity. But something of the sort could be said of each Christian, called to illuminate the path of the brethren by word and example of life. How important it is that we Christians are faithful to our vocation! Every authentic believer is always travelling his own personal itinerary of faith, and at the same time, with the little light that he carries within himself, can and must be a help to those alongside him, and even help the one for whom finding the way that leads to Christ is difficult.

~ BENEDICT XVI January 6, 2008

Intentions of the Holy Father, Pope Francis for January 2015
Entrusted to the Apostleship of Prayer

Universal: Peace - That those from diverse religious traditions and all people of good will may work together for peace.

Evangelization: Consecrated life - That in this year dedicated to consecrated life, religious men and women may rediscover the joy of following Christ and strive to serve the poor with zeal.

CD of the week Spotlight

Jennifer Fulwiler is a popular writer and speaker from Austin, Texas, and frequently appears on Catholic radio and EWTN. In this eye-opening presentation, she explains how her original support for abortion was based on love (and lies). Through sound logic and scientific proof, Jennifer chronicles how she came to accept the truth about abortion.

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER GROUP

Our Weekly Prayer service will resume from Wednesday, January 7, 2015, in the Parish Hall at 7 p.m.

Our faith is in God, both as individuals, and as a community. We need support from one another. We know that God wants to work through us, and that God wants to work in the people who come together, and share their faith with one another. There, God stands in our midst, and is willing to work miracles among us.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Theology on Tap

Ask the Bishop Monday, Jan 26, 2015 - 7:00pm - 9:00pm

All young adults (19-39) are invited to join us for an evening of thought-provoking conversation on theological topics!

Special guest: Bishop Wayne Kirkpatrick, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Toronto.

Is asking questions a sign of doubt or does it help lay the foundation for a stronger faith? Bishop Kirkpatrick will offer a brief reflection, and then the majority of the evening will be an opportunity for you to ask Bishop Kirkpatrick any questions you may have about our faith.

@ Duke of York Pub, 39 Prince Arthur Ave, Toronto
Munchies provided, cash bar available — come and bring a friend! For more info contact faithconnections@csj-to.ca, or phone 416-467-2645

The BIBLE STUDY

Acts of the Apostles provides us more than a history of the First Christians - it is the story about the Early Church with the Holy Spirit as the protagonist. Christ did not leave His Apostles alone - He sent the Holy Spirit to guide, instruct and equip them. Enrich and deepen your faith as you learn how the Apostles continued Christ's mission on earth through the Power of the Holy Spirit.

Join us for ACTS: THE SPREAD OF THE KINGDOM, a 20 week study Monday evenings at St Joseph parish hall beginning Jan 5th (from 7pm -9pm).

Cost is $5 to register - $35 for materials.

For more information or to register: Call Michele at 905-826-2766 or email: michele@stjosephsstreetsville.com.
