THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Monday June 13 - St. Anthony of Padua, was born in Portugal (then a part of Spain) in 1195. At age 15 he entered an Augustinian Abbey against his family's wishes. In 1219 he met with five Franciscans on their way to preach to the Muslims in Morocco. Martyred during their mission, their mutilated bodies were brought back to Spain. Moved by their sacrifice and simple lifestyle, he asked to join the Franciscans in Morocco but ill health forced him to return soon after his arrival. He became known for his extraordinary speaking abilities and his many famous sermons.

Pope Francis Prayer Intentions for June 2016

Universal: HUMAN SOLIDARITY,

That the aged, marginalized, and those who have no one may find—even within the huge cities of the world—opportunities for encounter and solidarity.

Evangelization: SEMINARIANS AND NOVICES

That seminarians and men and women entering religious life may have mentors who live the joy of the Gospel and prepare them wisely for their mission.

SECOND SPIRITUAL WORK OF MERCY TO INSTRUCT THE IGNORANT

Biblically speaking, this mandate comes directly from Jesus when He instructs His apostles, “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” (Matthew 28:19-20). But also, the Church from apostolic times has taken up on herself the important duty of serving the poor in by fighting illiteracy as it enslaves God’s people to abject poverty and oppresses them in body, mind and spirit. The ministers of the Church have dedicated their lives to instruct and teach them knowledge and skill. It is said that about one third of all the educational endeavours in the world are the initiatives of the Catholic Church. History tells us that it is the Church that championed the fight against illiteracy in many countries.

Today as much as in the first century, there is a need to instruct those who do not know the faith or those who have a wrong understanding of it. While much of the world has heard about Jesus Christ, most are ignorant of what Jesus actually taught. This is due to many factors, including the numerous false interpretations of the Gospels. What doesn’t help is the fact that we are sheep. We follow blindly whatever the culture tells us so many in our world do not have the fullness of the Faith.

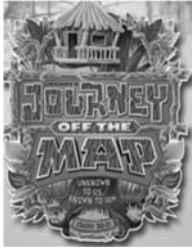

However, this does not give everyone a mandate to instruct those they know in the intricacies of Church teaching. We must be careful, as we could be instructing our fellow neighbor in falsehood, when we think we are giving them truth. Above all things we must remember that Jesus gave His “apostles” the direct mandate to “teach.” Bishops are the primary catechists in their geographical region and priests are cooperators with him. After priests come deacons and after deacons come lay catechists. Most dioceses have a certification program that “certifies” a specific catechist for teaching the faith. This is important as the local bishop is ultimately responsible for the souls in his care. What follows is that each catechist assists the bishop in his mission and can only operate with his permission.

At the same time, we have a duty to evangelize our coworkers or family members, but we must do so realizing that we can only take them so far. We must act like arrows, pointing to the truth, bringing these precious souls to those who can instruct them properly. Also, as parents, we have the duty to instruct our children in the Faith to the best of our ability. When our knowledge fails, we turn to the Church for assistance.

Instructing the ignorant must not be done lightly as the fate of a person’s soul hangs in the balance.

Psalms: The School of Prayer

 We hear the Psalms read or sung at every Mass between the first and second readings, but do we understand their significance? The Psalms are at the heart of the Bible. They are prayers from God that help us learn to pray. The Holy Spirit inspired them. Israel sang them. Christ himself prayed them, as did our Blessed Mother. These sacred hymns become our heartfelt response to God's loving and wondrous deeds for us. Their words captivate the imagination and draw us into a deeply personal encounter with God. Join us next September for this 11 class study. Cost is $30 for registration and materials or $5 just to register. You can register at the parish office.

OUR LADY'S PILGRIM STATUE
