DURING THE MONTHS OF JULY & AUGUST

THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Tuesday June 28, St Irenaeus, emphasized the traditional elements in the Church, especially the episcopate, Scripture, and tradition. He recognized the canonical character of all four gospels and was the most important theologian of the second century.

Monday June 29th. Sts. Peter & Paul through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom are the founders of the See of Rome.

Despite his weaknesses, St. Peter was chosen to shepherd God's flock. The Acts of the Apostles illustrates his role as head of the Church after the Resurrection and Ascension of Christ. Peter led the Apostles as the first Pope and ensured that the disciples kept the true faith. He spent his last years in Rome, leading the Church through persecution and eventually being martyred in the year 64 and was buried on Vatican hill. St. Peter's Basilica is built over his tomb.

St. Paul was the Apostle of the Gentiles. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament, and through them we learn much about his life and the faith of the early Church. After his miraculous conversion Paul spent the remainder of his life preaching the Gospel tirelessly to the Gentiles of the Mediterranean world. He was imprisoned and taken to Rome, where he was beheaded in the year 67. He is buried in Rome in the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls.

ON CANADA DAY – FRIDAY JULY 1ST

THERE WILL BE NO 7:30 PM MASS

AND THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED

PARISH OFFICE CLOSED:
CANADA DAY - Friday July 1st
CIVIC DAY Monday August 1st

and will be closed every Friday in July & August

EUTHANASIA COMES TO CANADA

"There are two ways, the way to life and the way to death, and there is a great difference between them."

These wise words from an ancient Christian writer come to mind as we mark Parliament's enactment of the law implementing the Supreme Court's decision on euthanasia and assisted suicide, which is a fundamentally misguided decision.

Though I do not question the good intentions of either judges or legislators, their decisions have set our country down a path that leads not simply, and obviously, towards physical death for an increasing number of our fellow citizens, but towards a grim experience for everyone in our society of the coldness of spiritual death. That death is found in a loss of respect for the dignity of the human person, in a deadening pressure upon the vulnerable to be gone, and in an assault upon the sanctuary of conscience to be suffered by good individuals and institutions who seek only to heal.

We need to consider the dire implications that result when we lose the ability to distinguish between dying and being killed. We also need to see the terrible future our loved ones will face if individuals, governments or others, can decide who can live and for how long; when the decision to give or take the life we mysteriously received is someone's choice, not our own gift.

Meanwhile, we need to take immediate steps.

1. Make palliative and medical care available for all Canadians (not just 30% of us).
2. Speak forthrightly; "Medical Assistance in Dying" does not describe medical assistance in dying; it describes killing.
3. Assure that those individuals who have dedicated their lives to healing will not be pressured into either directly causing the death of their patients, or into arranging for this to happen.

Some may be consoled by the fact that the law could be worse: there are some "safeguards" protecting the vulnerable, and there is some conscience protection. Any thankfulness for these positive elements must, however, be set against the fact that in other places where euthanasia has been introduced, it has always been cloaked with "safeguards" that lull the citizens into complacency. Over the years those "safeguards" gradually weaken and finally drop away, and then the full hard cold force of euthanasia is felt. Here is a chilling fact: despite the confidence of the Supreme Court justices that Canada is different from those jurisdictions, in only slightly more than a year since their decision, the "safeguards" are already under vigorous attack.

Coming this September .....

Psalms: The School of Prayer

We hear the Psalms read or sung at every Mass between the first and second readings, but do we understand their significance? The Psalms are at the heart of the Bible. They are prayers from God that help us learn to pray. The Holy Spirit inspired them. Israel sang them. Christ himself prayed them, as did our Blessed Mother. These sacred hymns become our heartfelt response to God's loving and wondrous deeds for us. Their words captivate the imagination and draw us into a deeply personal encounter with God. Join us next September for this 11 class study. Cost is $30 for registration and materials or $5 just to register. You can register at the parish office.

UPDATE: The subscription to this wonderful site has been paid for by St. Joseph Parish and so is free to all members and their friends, families and neighbors. We now have a permanent parish code to use for Formed so we can no longer use the international login to login. To access formed you must set up a login account with your own email address. To set up an account our parish code is V9WRHN.

With FORMED you'll find video programs that explain the Catholic faith, explore the deepest meaning of marriage, receive Bible studies on a variety of topics and includes inspiring audio talks. And you'll find presenters like Dr. Tim Gray, Dr. Edward Sri, Dr. Mary Healey, Chris Stefanick, Dr. Scott Hahn, Bishop Robert Barron and a lot more. They're all part of our parish subscription.

It truly is the Catholic faith - on demand.

Fr Marc-Andre and the office staff, would like to wish everyone a wonderful summer.
