THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS – JUNE 8

Many times during history the Supreme Pontiffs have reminded humanity that without the Lord Jesus life has no real meaning, man gropes in the dark to find himself.

16th century Calvinism and 17th century Jansenism preached a distorted Christianity that substituted for God's love and sacrifice of His Son for all men the fearful idea that a whole section of humanity was inexorably damned.

The Church always countered this view with the infinite love of our Savior who died on the cross for all men. The institution of the feast of the Sacred Heart was soon to contribute to the creation among the faithful of a powerful current of devotion which has since grown steadily stronger.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR PRIESTS – JUNE 8

Catholics worldwide are urged to pray for priests on the World Day of Prayer for Priests on June 8, the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. The day was begun by St. John Paul II in 2002 with the objective of having all Catholic Faithful join in prayer for the sanctification of priests.

A RETREAT WITH FR. NEIMAN D'SOUZA

CORPUS CHRISTI WITH POPE JOHN PAUL II

In 1982 Pope John Paul II celebrated Corpus Christi not at Saint Peter's but outside the cathedral of Rome, in front of the Basilica of Saint John Lateran. After the Mass, the Holy Father carried the Blessed Sacrament through the Roman streets, in a procession from Saint John Lateran to the Basilica of Saint Mary Major, about a mile long procession. He had brought back a Roman custom that had not taken place for over a hundred years, a custom that he continued throughout his pontificate and which Pope Benedict XVI continued.

In Krakow (and I imagine throughout Poland), the popular Corpus Christi procession was banned during the Nazi occupation of Poland. Later, the Communists were determined to eradicate this tradition. Prior to the war, in Krakow this great public procession honoring the Eucharistic Body and Blood of Christ went from Wawel Cathedral through the streets of the Old Town to the market square. The communists permitted a truncated procession to leave Wawel Cathedral and process around the courtyard of the royal palace, but the procession was forbidden to enter the city. During these processions in the 1970's, Cardinal Karol Wojtyla, the future John Paul II, preached dynamic sermons in which he spoke of the Eucharist and also about religious freedom and the right to worship. As is well known, the future pope struggled for the building of new churches in the archdiocese of Krakow. He also fought for the restoration of the full Corpus Christi procession.

It is significant that the last encyclical letter written by Pope John Paul II was on the theme of the Holy Eucharist. In it, he wrote the following:

"The Eucharist, as Christ's saving presence in the community of the faithful and its spiritual food, is the most precious possession which the Church can have in her journey through history. " "In the humble signs of bread and wine, changed into his body and blood, Christ walks beside us as our strength and our food for the journey, and he enables us to become, for everyone, witnesses of hope. If, in the presence of this mystery, reason experiences its limits, the heart, enlightened by the grace of the Holy Spirit, clearly sees the response that is demanded, and bows low in adoration and unbounded love."

Every time we receive Holy Communion, it is an intimate and personal encounter with Jesus who gives Himself to us. When the people of Israel journeyed through the desert during the Exodus, the Lord fed them with manna. As we journey through the desert of this life, the Lord feeds us with living bread, with Himself, the bread of life. We believe Jesus' promise that whoever eats His flesh and drinks His blood has eternal life and He will raise him on the last day.

May the power of this sacrament penetrate our lives!
Saint John Paul II, pray for us!

ShareLife

Living the Gospel by promoting the mental health of kids

Jake wrote a story in his grade 7 class that made his principal worry he might harm himself. The principal called his mother and recommended she take him to see a counsellor at Catholic Community Services of York Region, a ShareLife-funded agency. While the boy was very quiet during the first session, he eventually revealed his sadness and confusion about his parents' divorce. As the counsellor helped Jake learn how other kids respond to a family breakup, he was relieved to find out his grieving was normal. Jake started to feel much better. By donating to ShareLife, you're helping kids like Jake find healing and happiness.

Please make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish or sharelife.org!
