SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Maria Goretti

Virgin and Martyr of the Church

18 year old Maria was sitting outside the steps of her home when her neighbour Alessandro tried to rape her, Maria cried that it was a mortal sin and that he would go to hell. She told him that she would rather die than submit because of her love for the Lord. He stabbed her 14 times and then fled. The next day, Maria forgave Alessandro, said she wanted to see him in heaven, and then passed away. Maria appeared to Alessandro in a dream handing him lilies, after which he repented. After his release from prison, he begged her mother's forgiveness. She forgave him and they attended Mass together. He also attended her canonization.

St. Maria Goretti, pray for us!

Freedom And Following Christ

The Apostle Paul, writing to the Christians of Galatia, (today in Turkey) said: "You were called to freedom, brethren; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love be servants of one another". Living according to the flesh means following the selfish tendencies of human nature. Living according to the Spirit, on the other hand, means allowing oneself to be guided in intentions and works by God's love which Christ has given to us. Therefore, Christian freedom is quite the opposite of arbitrariness; it consists in following Christ in the gift of self even to the sacrifice of the Cross.

As the time approached when he was to be taken from this world, Jesus "firmly resolved to proceed toward Jerusalem". In the phrase "firmly resolved", we can glimpse Christ's freedom. He knows that in Jerusalem, death on a cross awaits him, but in obedience to the Father's will, he offers himself for love. It is in his very obedience to the Father that Jesus achieves his own freedom as a conscious decision motivated by love.

Who is freer than the One who is the Almighty? He did not, however, live his freedom as an arbitrary power or as domination. He lived it as a service. In this way he "filled" freedom with content, which would otherwise have remained an "empty" possibility of doing or not doing something. Like human life itself, freedom draws its meaning from love. Indeed, who is the freest? Someone who selfishly keeps all possibilities open for fear of losing them, or someone who expends himself "firmly resolved" to serve and thereby finds himself full of life because of the love he has given and received?

It may seem a paradox, but the Lord lived the crowning point of his freedom on the Cross as a summit of love.

~ BENEDICT XVI Sunday, 1st July 2007

WATCH | A HOUSE DIVIDED A Biblical Examination of the Protestant Reformation

Dr. Tim Gray, takes a new approach to a thorny topic. Rather than approaching the Reformation from an apologetical standpoint, Dr. Gray takes a broader view. He goes back to the Old Testament civil war between the once-united kingdom of Israel, providing a history lesson from which Catholics and Protestants alike can learn much. (71 mins)
