FOR ALL FATHERS

A good father strengthens his children's confidence. He helps his children to form healthy attitudes towards work along with instilling in them serious work habits. If he fails in these tasks, his children may never grow up and remain in permanent adolescence. He teaches a proper respect for authority. He insists that his children respect him and their mother. By his own example at home he shows how adults respect each other and also assert their own prerogatives while maintaining that respect.

The presence of a father in the family offers something important and different than a mother to both sons and daughters. All of his children need his love and protection of course. His sons in particular need him to model a manhood that is morally and psychologically healthy so they can eventually undertake their own adult roles: as workers, friends, and (for the majority of men through most of history) husbands and fathers. His daughters, on the other hand, need him to impart a sense of safety and security and to learn from his example of protective and respectful love toward their mother what kind of treatment they have a right to expect from men as they grow up: and will thereby develop the confidence to steer clear of mistreatment or disrespect from men.

A father corrects and encourages his children and helps them learn from their mistakes. In this way, children develop a realistic sense of their strengths and limitations. Eventually, a good father leads his children to mature decision-making and shrewd judgment, so that as adults they will be capable of thinking logically, foreseeing consequences, and assessing people's character and their values.

We need strong fathers now more than ever. It would be good for us to pray today to St. John Paul II, the pope of the family, requesting him to help all fathers fulfill their mission on earth. As priest, bishop, and pope, St. John Paul was a wonderful model of spiritual fatherhood, who demonstrated in his own calm demeanor, resilient spirit, open heart, and trained mind how much he had benefitted from close association with his own good and holy father. The future Pope John Paul imbibed strength for the great struggles of his own life, as well as a strong and secure faith that he shared with the world when he famously told us, "Be not afraid."

FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

God our Father,
We give you thanks and praise
for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers,
newly embracing their vocation;
May they find courage and perseverance to balance
work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.
We pray for our own Fathers around the world
whose children are lost or suffering;
May they know that the God of compassion
walks with them in their sorrow.
We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.
We remember fathers, grandfathers,
and great grandfathers who are no longer with us
but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

Amen

*"Man cannot live without love.
Without Love He remains a being that is incomprehensible for himself,
his life is senseless, if love is not revealed to him,
if he does not encounter love, if he does not experience it
and make it his own,
if he does not participate intimately in it."*

St. John Paul II - Redemptor Hominis.

FAMILY SUMMER CAMP

At family camp, we strive to create an atmosphere of outdoor rest and recreation for Catholic families who join together for shared vacation time. Each family enjoys three hot meals each day and the privacy of an individual cabin. The campground offers a pool, walking trails and great children's outdoor activities.

Family camp is a place where children can play with physical and moral safety, and parents can learn from each other in their great project of raising their children and growing continually closer to God in a media / digital technology-free environment.

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER GROUP

Prayer Meetings every Wednesday at 7 pm - Parish Hall
ALL ARE WELCOME!

"Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms." (1 Peter 4:10)

We are urgently in need of an Organist from September 2018. If God has blessed you with this gift, and you can devote your time every Wednesday, from 7 to 9 pm, please contact Lea Lobo (647-763-2109) or email us on dmpgdurie@gmail.com. May God bless you for your level of faithfulness!

If we use our talents wisely, God will give us more talents. If we use our time wisely, God will give us more time. If we use our energy wisely, God will give us more energy. If we use our influence wisely, God will increase our influence!

Summer Break: June 21 to September 4, 2018

We resume on Wednesday, September 5, with HOLY MASS at 7 p.m. - Theme: "A Renewed Call to Commitment"

ShareLife

Living the Gospel" by helping isolated seniors...

In partnership with Catholic Family Service agencies and six parishes in Peel Region and Simcoe County, ShareLife is funding a pilot project that connects trained volunteers with isolated and lonely seniors. Volunteers cultivate relationships by conducting home visits, making phone calls, and linking seniors with community resources.

Through your generosity, ShareLife is connecting these seniors with the support they need..

Please make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish or sharelife.org

Even in the summer months modest attire is necessary when we come to worship at the parish. If it was demanded for the British royal wedding how much more should we prepare for the King of Kings.

YOUTH SACRAMENTAL CALENDAR

READ: BOYS TO MEN The Transforming Power of Virtue by Tim Gray and Curtis Martin. This is a Bible study designed specifically for men who want to build their spiritual strength. Each challenging lesson combines rich Scriptural teaching with centuries of Christian wisdom to train today's men for the virtuous life.

READ (Parenting): THE FATHER OF THE FAMILY - A Christian Perspective. Clayton Barbeau urges husbands to see themselves as co-creators with God, imitators of Christ's love for His people, high priests in the domestic Church, teachers of their children, witnesses to society, providers of spiritual and material goods, and models of holiness.

READ: THE CATHOLIC FAMILY HANDBOOK - Time-Tested Ways to Help You Strengthen Your Marriage and Raise Good Kids by FR. LAWRENCE G. LOVASIK. Here is a crucial book for you if you want to shield your family from the effects of our selfish secular culture, which destroys families and poisons relationships. Fr. Lawrence Lovasik, the renowned author of The Hidden Power of Kindness, gives faithful Catholics all the essential ingredients of a stable and loving Catholic marriage and family - ingredients that are in danger of being lost in our turbulent age.

READ (Novel): THE FATHER'S TALE by Michael D. O'Brien. Alex Graham is a middle-age widower whose quiet life is turned upside down when his college-age son disappears without any explanation or trace of where he has gone. With minimal resources, the father begins a long journey that takes him for the first time away from his safe and orderly world. Graham is pulled into conflicts between nations, as well as the eternal conflict between good and evil. Stretched nearly to the breaking point by the inexplicable suffering he witnesses and experiences, he discovers unexpected sources of strength as he presses onward in the hope of recovering his son - and himself.
