THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Wednesday June 21, St Aloysius Gonzaga, was born in Italy and by the age of 9 he had decided on a religious life. At age 18, he joined the Jesuits. He served in a hospital during the plague of 1587 in Milan, and died from it at the age of 23. In 1926, he was named patron of all Christian youth by Pope Pius XI. For his compassion and courage in the face of an incurable disease, Aloysius Gonzaga has become the patron of both AIDS sufferers and their caregivers.

Friday June 23, Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus falls 19 days after Pentecost, on a Friday and has been celebrated since 1856. This widely practiced and well-known devotion takes Jesus' physical heart as the representation of his divine love for humanity. The devotion especially emphasizes the unmitigated love, compassion, and long-suffering of the heart of Christ towards humanity

Saturday, June 24, Nativity of St. John the Baptist. Being the precursor of our Lord, he was accorded the same honor as the first great saints of the Christian era although he belonged to the Old Covenant. It was St John, the last of the prophets who baptized Jesus at the place at the Jordan where the children of the Exodus were believed to have crossed over into the Promised Land. He criticized the immorality of King Herod and his court and Herod was tricked into beheading him.

SUMMER DRESS CODE

As we enter into the summer season please wear clothing that is appropriate and shows respect both to The Lord and to those around us in our Church. Please remember that in a House of Worship we come to meet the Lord and must present ourselves in His House with respect and reverence in how we behave and how we dress.

DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME

Twice the Apostle Paul, writing to Corinth, recalls this command of Jesus in his account of the institution of the Eucharist. It is the oldest testimony we have to the words of Christ at the Last Supper.

“Do this.” That is, take bread, give thanks and break it; take the chalice, give thanks, and share it. Jesus gives the command to repeat this action by which he instituted the memorial of his own Pasch, and in so doing gives us his Body and his Blood. This action reaches us today: it is the “doing” of the Eucharist which always has Jesus as its subject, but which is made real through our poor hands anointed by the Holy Spirit.

“Do this.” Jesus on a previous occasion asked his disciples to “do” what was so clear to him, in obedience to the will of the Father. In the Gospel passage that we have just heard, Jesus says to the disciples in front of the tired and hungry crowds: “Give them something to eat yourselves” (Lk 9:13). Indeed, it is Jesus who blesses and breaks the loaves and provides sufficient food to satisfy the whole crowd, but it is the disciples who offer the five loaves and two fish. Jesus wanted it this way: that, instead of sending the crowd away, the disciples would put at his disposal what little they had. And there is another gesture: the pieces of bread, broken by the holy and venerable hands of Our Lord, pass into the poor hands of the disciples, who distribute these to the people. This too is the disciples “doing” with Jesus; with him they are able to “give them something to eat.” Clearly this miracle was not intended merely to satisfy hunger for a day, but rather it signals what Christ wants to accomplish for the salvation of all mankind, giving his own flesh and blood. And yet this needs always to happen through those two small actions: offering the few loaves and fish which we have; receiving the bread broken by the hands of Jesus and giving it to all.

Breaking: this is the other word explaining the meaning of those words: “Do this in remembrance of me.” Jesus was broken; he is broken for us. And he asks us to give ourselves, to break ourselves, as it were, for others. This “breaking bread” became the icon, the sign for recognizing Christ and Christians. We think of Emmaus: they knew him “in the breaking of the bread” (Lk 24:35). We recall the first community of Jerusalem: “They held steadfastly... to the breaking of the bread” (Acts 2:42). From the outset it is the Eucharist which becomes the center and pattern of the life of the Church. But we think also of all the saints – famous or anonymous – who have “broken” themselves, their own life, in order to “give something to eat” to their brothers and sisters. How many Christians, as responsible citizens, have broken their own lives to defend the dignity of all, especially the poorest, the marginalized and those discriminated! Where do they find the strength to do this? It is in the Eucharist: in the power of the Risen Lord’s love, who today too breaks bread for us and repeats: “Do this in remembrance of me.”

ShareLife
Living the Gospel by helping women in crisis ...
Early in life, Tanya was sexually abused by her extended family in her native country, who regarded her as a worthless, dangerous person who should be chained up. She became suicidal and was admitted into the hospital. Tanya then fled to Canada as a refugeeseearching for safety and happiness. She first came to Street Haven three years ago through their Learning Centre, enrolling in the literacy and numeracy classes. The staff connected her to their Emergency Shelter, where she stayed and had access to legal aid and other vital supports to assist her through the refugee process. "I now have hope since I came to ShareLife supported Street Haven and know that I have the tools to move forward with my life." shares Tanya.
Street Haven helped Tanya move forward with her life and she now lives in a safe home where she can start again.
