THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Wednesday, June 24 - Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

Jesus called John the greatest of all those who had preceded him so he received special veneration. Being the precursor of our Lord, he was accorded the same honor as the first great saints of the Christian era, although he belonged to the Old Covenant. Ordinarily the Church observes the day of a saint's death as his feast, because that day marks his entrance into heaven but it was the firm belief among the faithful that John was freed from original sin at the moment when his mother met the Blessed Virgin and was "filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb". It was St John, the last of the prophets who baptized Jesus at the place at the Jordan where the children of the Exodus were believed to have crossed over into the Promised Land. In the course of John's preaching, he criticized the immorality of King Herod's court, and of his marital situation with Herodias, his niece and the former wife of his half-brother, Philip. The infuriated Herodias plotted against his life and was able to trick Herod into beheading him.

SOLEMN LATIN MASS FOR THE FEAST OF STS. PETER & PAUL

There will be a special Mass in the more ancient form of the Roman Rite (1962 Missal of St. John XXIII) on Monday June 29th at 7:30 pm.

This Mass will be followed with a farewell reception for Fr. Russell Asch as he has been appointed the Chaplain of St. Michael Hospital in Toronto.

EVERY FAMILY NEEDS A FATHER

The first need, then, is precisely this: that a father be present in the family. That he be close to his wife, to share everything, joy and sorrow, hope and hardship. And that he be close to his children as they grow: when they play and when they strive, when they are carefree and when they are distressed, when they are talkative and when they are silent, when they are daring and when they are afraid, when they take a wrong step and when they find their path again; a father who is always present. To say "present" is not to say "controlling"! Fathers who are too controlling cancel out their children, they don't let them develop.

The Gospel speaks to us about the exemplarity of the Father who is in Heaven — who alone, Jesus says, can be truly called the "good Father" (cf. Mk 10:18). Everyone knows that extraordinary parable of the "prodigal son", or better yet of the "merciful father", which we find in the Gospel of Luke in chapter 15 (cf. 15:11-32). What dignity and what tenderness there is in the expectation of that father, who stands at the door of the house waiting for his son to return! Fathers must be patient. Often there is nothing else to do but wait; pray and wait with patience, gentleness, magnanimity and mercy.

Excerpts from
POPE FRANCIS GENERAL AUDIENCE February 4, 2015
