THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Thurs. March 19, St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin is a man of great spirit. He is great in faith, not because he speaks his own words, but because he listens to the words of the Living God. Little about the life of Joseph is in Scripture but we know that he was the chaste husband of Mary, the foster father of Jesus, a carpenter and a man who was not wealthy. We also know that he came from the royal lineage of King David. We can see from his actions in scripture that Joseph was a compassionate man, and obedient to the will of God. He also loved Mary and Jesus and wanted to protect and provide for them. Joseph is the patron of many things, including the universal Church, fathers, the dying and social justice

Feast of St Joseph

... is on Thursday, March 19. We will celebrate our on Saint with a Mass at 7:00 p.m. Following the Mass, there will be a reception in the Parish Hall with the Blessing of St. Joseph's Table. Those attending are asked to bring a dessert/appetizer to the Parish Hall before Mass.

To share our blessings with those in need we will be collecting non-perishable food items for our St Vincent de Paul food bank.

FORTY (40) HOURS OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

In preparation for the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Patron saint of the Universal Church, principal patron of Canada and of our Parish, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for 40 hours. Commencing Tuesday

March 17th at 9:00 am through to 10 pm that day, starting again on March 18th at 9:00 am through the night up to 6:00 pm on March 19th ending with the St Joseph Feast day Mass at 7:00 pm. Sign-up sheets are in both church entrances.

A MESSAGE IN BLOOD: ISIS AND THE MEANING OF THE CROSS PART 2

And this is why it is surpassing strange that one of the earliest Apostles and missionaries of the Christian religion could write, "I preach one thing, Christ and him crucified!" How could Paul—the passage is taken from his first letter to the Corinthians—possibly present the dreadful cross as the centerpiece of his proclamation? He could do so only because he knew that God had raised the crucified Jesus from the dead, proving thereby that God's love and forgiveness are greater than anything in the world. This is why his exaltation of the cross is a sort of taunt to Rome and all of its brutal descendants down through the ages: "You think that scares us? God has conquered that!" And this is why, to this day, Christians boldly hold up an image of the humiliated, tortured Jesus to the world. What they are saying is, "We are not afraid." How wonderful this is, by the way, in light of the Charlie Hebdo tragedy and the controversy over the Dutch cartoonist's mocking depictions of the prophet Muhammad. Christians don't fuss particularly about insults to Jesus, for we reverence a depiction of the insulted Christ as our most sacred icon. We can say, with Paul, "I am certain that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither height nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Rom. 8:38-39), for we know that the world killed Jesus but God raised him from the dead.

Just before their throats were cut, many of the murdered Coptic Christians could be seen mouthing the words "Jesus Christ" and "Jesus is Lord." The first of those phrases is a rendering of the Aramaic Ieshouah Maschiach, which means "Jesus the anointed one" and which hearkens back to King David, the paradigmatic anointed figure of the Old Testament. The second phrase is one that can be traced to St. Paul's kerygmatic cry Iesous Kyrios (Jesus Lord!), which was intended to trump a watchword of the time, Kaiser Kyrios (Caesar is Lord). In short, both declarations assert the kingship of Jesus, but what a strange kingship! The new David reigns, not from a throne, but from a cross; the one who trumps Caesar doesn't lead an army, but embodies the divine forgiveness. The ISIS barbarians were actually quite right in entitling their video "A Message Written in Blood." Up and down the centuries, tyrants and their lackeys have thought that they could wipe out the followers of Jesus through acts of violence. But as Tertullian observed long ago, the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church. And they were furthermore right in sending their message to "the Nation of the Cross." But they should know that the cross taunts them. ~ by Fr. Robert Barron February 26, 2015
