MESSAGE OF POPE FRANCIS FOR LENT 2017

Lent is a new beginning, a path leading to the certain goal of Easter, Christ's victory over death. This season urgently calls us to conversion. Christians are asked to return to God "with all their hearts" (Joel 2:12), to refuse to settle for mediocrity and to grow in friendship with the Lord. Jesus is the faithful friend who never abandons us. Even when we sin, he patiently awaits our return; by that patient expectation, he shows us his readiness to forgive.

Lent is a favourable season for deepening our spiritual life through the means of sanctification offered us by the Church: fasting, prayer and almsgiving. At the basis of everything is the word of God, which during this season we are invited to hear and ponder more deeply. I would now like to consider the parable of the rich man and Lazarus (cf. Lk 16:19-31). Let us find inspiration in this meaningful story, for it provides a key to understanding what we need to do in order to attain true happiness and eternal life. It exhorts us to sincere conversion ~ From the Vatican, 18 October 2016

"Working wonders for homeless youth..."

On a given night, 6,000 people across Canada between 16 and 24 have nowhere to call home. This represents 20 per cent of the total homeless population. In Toronto, estimates of homeless youth range from 900 to 2,000 nightly.

The ShareLife-supported Rights of Passage program at Covenant House have been active in making a positive difference in the lives of homeless youth on the streets of Toronto. 75 % of these youth have been matched with mentors and have also made progress in strengthening their life skills and family relationships, getting them ready for life on their own. In addition, the ShareLife funded Youth In Transition programs helps youth in foster care to transition to independent living.

Sunday April 2, is ShareLife Sunday
Please give generously. You can work wonders!

2017 ORDINANDI

Rev. Mr. Favin Alemão, 29, first experienced the joy of the priesthood in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates, where he was born. While in Goa, India he was struck by the elaborate festivals that each village hosted to mark its patron saint. The solemnity of each evening's rosary and devotions impressed upon him a sense of the holiness of prayer. In 2001, Favin immigrated to Canada with his family. Encouraged by the chaplaincy leader at his high school, he attended a vocation discernment retreat with the Salesians. He studied at the University of Toronto (Scarborough) for three years and left in 2008 to begin studying philosophy at St. Philip's Seminary, while living at Serra House. He entered St. Augustine's Seminary in 2010, and now looks forward to his ordination in May for the Archdiocese of Toronto.
