POPE FRANCIS

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Cyril of Jerusalem

St. Cyril was Bishop of Jerusalem. During a famine, Cyril sold church goods to raise money for the poor. He was accused of stealing for himself by heretics and was banished three times. He was finally cleared after 11 years and returned to Palestine. Cyril is known as an Early Church Father and a Doctor of the Church for his defense of the Catholic faith against Arianism.

PUTTING FAITH INTO ACTION

Although prayer and fasting are surely important, this year I would like to emphasize the importance of almsgiving, which means a generous sharing with others, especially those in need. It may well be that the most valuable thing we can share is our time, for our lives are woven out of time, and when we give time generously to another, we give our very selves.

In this Archdiocese the primary way in which we engage in almsgiving is through ShareLife, in which we as a Catholic community reach out to care for the most vulnerable among us. As disciples of Jesus, when we make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife, we put our money where our mouth is.

One vitally important but not so well known way of making the love of Christ present in this suffering world is the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul. It was founded in 1833 in Paris by a 20 year old university student, Frederic Ozanam (1813-1853), who with his Catholic friends was trying to study the faith, and to explain the Catholic faith in the anti-Catholic university world of their day. One antagonistic student challenged them: you talk so much about your faith, but where do we see you putting it into action? Frederic and his young friends took that challenge to heart, and in addition to prayer and religious study, they headed out into the streets of Paris, offering practical assistance to those in need. (To be continued next week).

Many people help those in need by volunteering at a local organization. But if your schedule doesn't allow for it, you can still make a huge impact in your community by supporting ShareLife-funded agencies. “Live the Gospel” by making a sacrificial gift to our parish ShareLife campaign. Please give generously.
