LENT II

One of the themes we find in Lent is the revelation of God in Jesus Christ. We find it in the gospel story of the Samaritan Woman when Jesus reveals himself to this sinful woman searching for God: "I who am speaking to you, I am he." We find it in the gospel story of the man born blind, whose response to our Lord's healing miracle was "Lord, I believe", and he worshipped Him. And today's Gospel of the Transfiguration is another, perhaps the most profound revelation of the Godhead of Jesus Christ: "This is my Son, the Chosen One. Listen to him." Our Lord's teaching and preaching, His stories and his actions all show forth the Father's will to the world. The Son is transparent to the Father – as He says, anyone who has seen Me, has seen the Father. This is exactly what the Transfiguration signifies. On a high mountain, the glory of God which is Jesus' everlasting possession as the Father's only Son, breaks through briefly to His human features and appearance. It shows to the disciples the transparency of Jesus to the Father, something which was to be made even more clear in the resurrection when, through the cross, God's kingdom is finally inaugurated on earth. Our Lord is flanked by the figures of Moses and Elijah – these two, representative of the Law and the Prophets.

~Fr Paul Dobson
