THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Monday May 2, St. Athanasius - was born at Alexandria, about the year 296 and educated under Alexander, who later became Bishop. He also spent time in the desert in retreat with St. Anthony, and was unanimously elected Patriarch in 326 succeeding his former teacher Alexander. His refusal to tolerate the Arian heresy was the cause of many trials and persecutions. He spent 17 of the 46 years of his episcopate in exile.

Tuesday May 3, Sts Philip and James, Apostles: Philip was born in Bethsaida. At first a disciple of John the Baptist, he became a follower of Christ. James, a cousin of the Lord and the son of Alphaeus, ruled over the Church at Jerusalem, wrote an epistle and converted many of the Jewish people to the faith. He led an austere life and suffered martyrdom in the year 62.

We will be having a procession, in honour of Our Lady of Fatima, on Saturday, May 14, 2016 following the final blessing at the 5:30 pm Mass.

12 HOURS OF PRAYER FOR PALLIATIVE CARE WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 2016

designated by the CWL of Canada as a nationwide 12 hours of prayer for palliative care, designed to take place during the National Hospice Palliative Care Week, as a profound witness to the sanctity of human life. We ask you to support the CWL during this day of prayer. Prayers can take place within the church, at home or elsewhere to display Christ's love and compassion for all those who suffer.

TO VISIT THE IMPRISONED – 4TH CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY

This Holy Work has changed its meaning over time. The first Christians were, as you know, outlaws; so it was expected that some of their number would be in prison at any given time. Jesus was a prisoner; Paul was; Peter was; and many of the saints, bishops, and teachers of the first few centuries of Christian life were. So free Christians took it upon themselves to visit their friends, bringing food, solace, encouragement, and, when possible, liberation. They also sought the prisoners' blessing, since to be imprisoned for being a Christian was a mark of great courage and faith.

These days things are different, at least in our part of the world. (Christians continue to be imprisoned and even executed for their faith in the Middle East, China, Pakistan, North Korea and in other countries.) People in prison are there as the result of a judgment by a criminal-justice system that, while by no means perfect, does make them different from the Christian prisoners of Jesus' day. And modern prisons are not, by and large, visit-able places. So how are we to understand this Holy Work today?

We might start by remembering that even the prisoner guilty of the most awful crime is still created in God's image and is loved by God no less than God loves you or me. Along with the protection of society from truly dangerous individuals, one goal of imprisonment should always be rehabilitation so that the "lost" can be "found" and restored to a right relationship with God and others.

It has become routine for Pope Francis to visit those in prison. On Holy Thursday he makes it a priority to celebrate Mass at a local prison, going so far as to wash the feet of the inmates there. This is not something new for Pope Francis, as he often visited the imprisoned as a bishop.

During one of his recent homilies on Holy Thursday, Pope Francis addressed the prisoners and said: "Jesus loves us, without limits, always, until the end. The love of God for us doesn't have limits. There is always more, always more. He never tires of loving anyone."

It is clear that Pope Francis' mission is to show to these souls that God still loves them and beckons them to reform their ways. Pope Francis is reaching out to these men and women who have made many bad choices in their life and is trying to instill hope in their hearts. ~ from the National Catholic Register

Will be held today, May 1st ... We begin with Vespers (Evening Prayer) at 7 pm, followed by Lectio Divina with His Eminence Thomas Cardinal Collins from 7:30 to 8:15 pm. All are welcome for this special evening of prayer.

THE POPE'S PASTORAL WORKS COLLECTION MAY 1ST

To display Christ's love and compassion for those who suffer; this collection is used to meet the needs presented by natural disasters such as floods and earthquakes or from displacements caused by war and political upheavals.

ShareLife

Working wonders for the elderly... Elva is a client in her late 70's who spent her life overcoming the challenges of Spine Bifida. Despite her physical disabilities, Elva travelled the world as a music teacher and pianist for the Canadian National Ballet. Wheelchair bound for the last 25 years, Elva gradually found herself less able to continue doing the things she enjoyed. Last year, the Society of Sharing matched Elva with a friendly visitor, Adam, a university student, with whom she could converse as though there were no age difference. Adam is seen as an encouraging, familiar friend; someone to share ideas with and assist her with her cell phone, computer/ printer. Because of Adam, Elva's world opened up and she has reconnected to her community, been able to share her incredible gifts of wit, intelligence and positive attitude, giving her a renewed sense of meaning and purpose. Last year ShareLife-supported agencies provided outreach programs that met the needs of over 2,200 seniors. This year, with your support, we can do more to help the elderly within our Archdiocese.
