THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Wednesday May 13, *Our Lady of Fatima. The Blessed Virgin Mary is venerated under this title following apparitions to three shepherd children in Portugal in 1917. The message of Fatima includes a call to conversion of heart, repentance from sin and a dedication to the Blessed Virgin Mary, especially through praying the Rosary.

Thursday May 14, *St. Matthias the Apostle was one of the seventy-two disciples and an eye-witness to all the Lord's divine actions up to the very day of the Ascension. In the interval between Jesus' Ascension and the descent of the Holy Ghost, the apostolic college had to complete the mystic number fixed by our Lord Himself, so that there might be the twelve on that solemn day. The lot fell on Mathias. He shared with his brother-apostles the persecution in Jerusalem, and, when the time came for the ambassadors of Christ to separate, he is believed to have been sent to Cappadocia and the provinces bordering on the Caspian Sea.

ORDINATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD

On Saturday, May 9, 2015 at 10:00 AM. His Eminence, Thomas Cardinal Collins will be ordaining Reverend Ricardo Davis and Reverend David Twaddle to the Priesthood at St. Michael's Cathedral. Please keep these men in your prayers as they begin their great journey of serving the people of God in the Archdiocese of Toronto.

We congratulate the families of:

Emmaleigh Jane Newnham, Sawyer Peter Newnham
& Magnolia Anthea Domenica Condello

As they are welcomed into the community of faith.

THE STARTLINGLY GOOD NEWS OF THE RESURRECTION - CONCLUSION

A second great implication of the resurrection is that heaven and earth are coming together. As I've argued often before, many Christians today remain haunted by the Platonic view that matter and spirit are opponents and that the purpose of life is finally to affect a prison-break, releasing the soul from the body. This might have been Plato's philosophy, but it has precious little to do with the Bible. The hope of ancient Israel was not a jail-break, not an escape from this world, but precisely the unification of heaven and earth in a great marriage. Recall a central line from the prayer that Jesus bequeathed to his church: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." The bodily resurrection of Jesus—the "first fruits of those who have fallen asleep"—is the powerful sign that the two orders are in fact coming together. A body, which can be touched and which can consume baked fish—has found its way into the realm of heaven, or to turn things around, heaven has reached down and transfigured a body, lifting it up into a higher pitch of perfection. Were the resurrection but a clever myth, the two dimensions would be as separate as ever.

Do not accept a watered-down, easy-to-believe ersatz of the resurrection faith. Let it be what it was always meant to be: dynamite. ~ Fr. Robert Barron April 05, 2015

Working wonders for the elderly...

Retired long-term and recently experiencing the passing of his wife, Jamie has adjusted his life again by moving to Les Centres d'Accueil Héritage. As CAH is the only French-speaking retirement home in Toronto, Jamie is drawn by the camaraderie of other French-speaking friends. He may be alone at this time in his final senior years, but the activities and friendship there give Jamie the love and support he needs to live happily as he freely shares his life stories with those around him. Last year ShareLife-supported agencies provided outreach programs that met the needs of over 2,200 seniors.

Thank you for your generosity.
Together we can work wonders!
