THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Tuesday June 1 St. Justin was born about A.D. 100, and converted to Christianity about A.D. 130 he taught and defended the Christian religion in Asia Minor and at Rome, where he suffered martyrdom about the year 165.

Tuesday June 2 St. Marcellinus and St. Peter, Marcellinus was a priest and Peter was an exorcist. Venerated by the early church they were imprisoned and then beheaded during the persecution of Emperor Diocletian. According to ancient accounts they saw their imprisonment as an opportunity to evangelize and managed to convert their jailer and his family.

Wednesday June 3 St. Charles Lwanga & Companions, Charles Lwanga was born in Uganda in the last half of the 19th century. He and other young men were required to work for King Mwanga, an evil man who treated all people harshly, especially the boys who worked for him. Charles and his friends became followers of Jesus Christ due to the work of the Society of Missionaries of Africa who tried to keep the boys safe from the king. King Mwanga launched persecutions of Christians in response to their opposition to his homosexual and corrupt court. In anger he ordered Charles and his friends put into prison and killed in 1886. They were forced to walk 37 miles to the place where they were burned to death.

Friday June 5 St. Boniface, was an English Benedictine monk who was known as the apostle of the Germans because he devoted his life to the conversion of the Germanic tribes. His own life was in constant peril and his flock was often reduced to abject poverty by wandering bands of robbers. He met great problems because of lay interference in bishops' elections, the worldliness of the clergy and lack of papal control. Yet his courage never wavered. During a final mission to the Frisians, he and 53 companions were massacred while he was preparing converts for Confirmation.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

In today's second reading, Saint Paul reminds us that in Baptism we received the Holy Spirit, who unites us to Christ as brothers and sisters and makes us children of the Father, so that we can cry out: "Abba, Father!" (cf. Rom 8:15,17). At that moment we were given a spark of new, divine life, which is destined to grow until it comes to its definitive fulfilment in the glory of heaven; we became members of the Church, God's family, "sacrarium Trinitatis" as Saint Ambrose calls it, "a people made one by the unity of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit", as the Second Vatican Council teaches (Lumen Gentium, 4). The liturgical Solemnity of the Holy Trinity that we are celebrating today invites us to contemplate this mystery, but it also urges us to commit ourselves to live our communion with God and with one another according to the model of Trinitarian communion. We are called to receive and to pass on the truths of faith in a spirit of harmony, to live our love for each other and for everyone, sharing joys and sufferings, learning to seek and to grant forgiveness, valuing the different charisms under the leadership of the bishops. In a word, we have been given the task of building church communities that are more and more like families, able to reflect the beauty of the Trinity and to evangelize not only by word, but I would say by "radiation", in the strength of living love.

It is not only the Church that is called to be the image of One God in Three Persons, but also the family, based on marriage between man and woman. In the beginning, "God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. And God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply'" (Gen 1:27-28). God created us male and female, equal in dignity, but also with respective and complementary characteristics, so that the two might be a gift for each other, might value each other and might bring into being a community of love and life. It is love that makes the human person the authentic image of the Blessed Trinity, image of God. Dear married couples, in living out your marriage you are not giving each other any particular thing or activity, but your whole lives. And your love is fruitful first and foremost for yourselves, because you desire and accomplish one another's good, you experience the joy of receiving and giving. It is also fruitful in your generous and responsible procreation of children, in your attentive care for them, and in their vigilant and wise education. And lastly, it is fruitful for society, because family life is the first and irreplaceable school of social virtues, such as respect for persons, gratuitousness, trust, responsibility, solidarity, cooperation. ~ from HOMILY OF HIS HOLINESS POPE BENEDICT Sunday, 3 June 2012

VOCATIONS

God the Father, Creator; God the Son, Redeemer; God the Holy Spirit, Sanctifier. When we go out to "make disciples of all nations", we have a lot to tell! God is present everywhere. Would you be willing to proclaim the truth of God's love and presence in your life as a priest, religious or deacon?

If so contact: Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997
or email: vocations@vocations.ca

Working wonders for those who need help in our neighbourhood...

"I searched the internet for "help young mother pregnant Mississauga" and I found Vita Centre. I was shocked to find out that there were complete strangers willing to help and guide young mothers to success. Even the resources that I have learned about from my counsellor has saved me so much time and hassle, and has given me hope that things will get better no matter how tough it may feel." shares Alyssa, who as a young mom, is now experiencing a brighter future, thanks to ShareLife-supported Vita Centre. Last year, over 6,300 young parents received the care, counselling and educational support they needed to care for themselves and their new families.

Thank you for your generosity.
Together we can work wonders!
