TEMPORARY CHANGES TO PLENARY INDULGENCES FOR THE DEAD

Praying for the dead is our Christian duty, and there is a special plenary indulgence that can be gained for the souls in Purgatory on All Souls Day. Plenary or full indulgences traditionally obtained during the first week of November for the souls of the faithful in purgatory can this year be gained throughout the entire month of November.

Those who cannot leave their homes or residence for "serious reasons," which includes government restrictions during a pandemic can receive a plenary indulgence after reciting specific prayers for the deceased or reflecting on a Gospel reading designated for Masses of the dead before an image of Jesus or the Blessed Virgin Mary, or by performing a work of mercy. In all cases, one also must fulfill the normal requirements set by the church for all plenary indulgences, which demonstrate a resolve to turn away from sin and convert to God.

Those conditions include: having a spirit detached from sin; going to confession as soon as possible; receiving the Eucharist as soon as possible; praying for the pope's intentions; and being united spiritually with all the faithful. Traditionally, the faithful could receive a full indulgence each day from Nov. 1 - Nov. 8 when they visited a cemetery to pray for the departed and fulfilled other conditions, and, in particular, when they went to a church or an oratory to pray Nov. 2, All Souls' Day. Also, those who are ill or homebound and would not be able to physically visit a church or cemetery in the prescribed timeframe still will be able to receive a plenary indulgence when meeting certain conditions, the Apostolic Penitentiary, a Vatican tribunal that deals with matters of conscience, said in a notice released Oct. 23.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven."
