THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Monday Nov 10 St. Andrew Dung-Lac, was one of 117 people martyred in Vietnam between 1820 and 1862 and represents this group of heroes. From a poor, non-Christian family he became a diocesan priest after being taught by a Christian lay catechist. He worked in the missions with the priests of the Foreign Mission Society of Paris. He was imprisoned and repeatedly tortured during the persecutions of Minh-Meng, the emperor of Vietnam. Between 1820 and 1840, 100,000 and 300,000 Catholics were killed or subjected to great hardship. Persistent persecution forced some 670,000 Catholics to abandon lands, homes and possessions and flee to the south. In 1964, there were still 833,000 Catholics in the north, but many were in prison. During the Vietnamese war, Catholics again suffered in the north, and again moved to the south in great numbers. Now the whole country is under Communist rule.

ST. JOSEPH SUNDAY MISSALS

...for the new liturgical year, which begins Sunday, Nov. 30th, are available for purchase from the Parish Office for $5.00.

HOMILY OF HIS HOLINESS BENEDICT XVI

We know from the Gospels that the Cross was the critical point of the faith of Simon Peter and of the other Apostles. It is clear and it could not be otherwise: they were men and thought “according to men”; they could not tolerate the idea of a crucified Messiah. Peter's “conversion” is fully achieved when he stops wanting “to save” Jesus and accepts to be saved by him. He gives up wanting to save Jesus from the Cross and allows Jesus' Cross to save him. “I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail; and when you have turned again, strengthen your brethren”, the Lord says. Peter's ministry consists first of all in his faith, a faith that Jesus immediately recognizes, from the outset, as genuine, as a gift of the heavenly Father; but a faith that must pass through the scandal of the Cross to become authentic, truly “Christian”, to become a “rock” on which Jesus can build his Church.

Participation in the lordship of Christ is only brought about in practice in the sharing of his self-abasement, with the Cross. My ministry too, dear Brothers, and consequently also yours, consists wholly of faith. Jesus can build his Church on us as long as that true, Paschal faith is found in us, that faith which does not seek to make Jesus come down from the Cross but entrusts itself to him on the Cross. In this regard the true place of the Vicar of Christ is the Cross, it lies in persisting in the obedience of the Cross. This ministry is difficult because it is not in line with the human way of thinking — with that natural logic which, moreover, continues to be active within us too. But this is and always remains our primary service, the service of faith that transforms the whole of life: believing that Jesus is God, that he is the King precisely because he reached that point, because he loved us to the very end. And we must witness and proclaim this paradoxical kingship as he, the King, did, that is, by following his own way and striving to adopt his same logic, the logic of humility and service, of the ear of wheat which dies to bear fruit.

~ Solemnity of Christ the King of the Universe Sunday, 21 Nov 2010.

The highlight of this pilgrimage on November 26-28th is the passage through the Holy Door during the 350th jubilee anniversary of Notre Dame de Quebec Basilica Cathedral in Québec City, which is the oldest of all parishes in North America, north of the Spanish Colonies. It is the chance to ask the Lord to help us transform that which must be changed in our lives, and then to advance with confidence and hope. The Holy Door of Notre Dame de Quebec witnesses the One who said "I am the door" and "No one can come to the Father except through me". RESERVE YOUR SPOT TODAY Call: Enza @ 905-301-3376 or email: nefrep@gmail.com
