FEAST OF THE WEEK

St. Charles Borromeo

St. Charles Borromeo lived during the time of the Protestant Reformation and had a hand in the reform of the whole Church during the final years of the Council of Trent. The religious and moral picture at the time was poor and he initiated regulations on the bishops and other clergy to give a good example and convert the people to the apostolic spirit. When the civil authorities fled at the height of the plague and famine of 1576, he stayed in the city, where he ministered to the sick and the dying, helping those in want.

St. Charles Borromeo Pray for us !

From Father Paul

Gospel Reflection

Zacchaes, in today's Gospel, welcomed the Lord "joyfully" (Lk 19:6) into his house. We might also note Zaccaheus's behaviour before and after meeting the Lord Jesus: Before, we can sense his eagerness. He was "anxious" (19:3) to see Him, he "ran ahead" (19:4), and "climbed a tree". After, we can sense the change that meeting the Lord caused in him: he changed his life, dramatically: he gave half his money to the poor and repaid fourfold all those he had cheated (19:8). And the Lord declared, "today salvation has come to this house" (Lk 19:9).

FEATURED MINISTRY

ROSARY APOSTOLATE

In 1997 St. John Paul II initiated a three-year preparation program for the Jubilee Year 2000. This inspired a jubilee project to visit classrooms with a five-minute presentation of one of the themes proposed by our Holy Father the Pope (simplifying them for children) followed by praying the Rosary with meditations connected to the theme of the day. Realizing the great need for prayer in our schools and building on the Jubilee project, the Rosary Apostolate was launched. First with the Toronto District Catholic School Board and then other school boards in the area.

By their witness and example, they hope to transmit to the children and youth the great love that the Blessed Virgin Mary had for Jesus! To learn more about the Rosary Apostolate please visit www.rosaryapostolate.com for more information. To get involved with the St. Joseph branch, please contact Margaret at 289-914-5747 or Aileen at 905-607-6851.
