SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Leo the Great

Pope and Doctor of the Church

Papacy: 440 - 461. Leo was widely respected for his love for the Lord, intelligence and persuasive nature. He was also gifted in bringing reconciliation between disputing groups of Christians, and often was sent out to settle disputes, both secular and theological. During the 5th century barbarian invasion, he even persuaded Attila the Hun to turn back at the gates of Rome.

St. Leo, pray for us!

Christian wisdom does not consist in a torrent of words, or in keen disputation, or in the desire for glory and praise, but rather in true and voluntary humility, such as our Lord practiced and taught convincingly from the time of his birth until his sufferings on the Cross.

ST. LEO THE GREAT

Plenary Indulgence for the Dead

Praying for the dead is our Christian duty, and there is a special plenary indulgence that can be gained for the souls in Purgatory on All Souls Day. This indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who piously visit a church. It removes all temporal punishment for sin—and so, in effect, releases a soul from Purgatory. To obtain the plenary indulgence, you must visit a church, recite one Our Father and the Creed, receive Communion, and pray one additional Our Father and one Hail Mary for the intentions of the Holy Father. (In addition, you must have no attachment to sin, even venial.) The final requirement is that you take part in the Sacrament of Confession, but you can do that up to seven days before or afterward. Since most Catholic parishes offer Confession on Saturday, you can go to Confession on the Saturday before or after All Souls Day, and then fulfill the rest of the requirements on All Souls Day itself.

The All Souls Day indulgence is a wonderful way to show your love for a friend or family member who has died. In less than an hour on All Souls Day, you can release a soul from Purgatory. Why not gain the indulgence for your loved one? ~ www.thoughtco.com
