FROM FATHER PAUL

Does the name Carlo Acutis mean anything to you? If not you will probably hear a lot about him in coming months. Carlo was beatified on 10 October in Assisi and the symbols associated with him – a laptop, a rosary and the Blessed Sacrament – underline the reality that, in all probability, he will be the first millennial to be declared a saint.

The most remarkable fact about Blessed Carlo is his age – he was fifteen when he died. To have matured so early in the things of God is a true miracle of grace made all the more interesting for us in Marylebone as we can claim him as a sort of neighbour. Carlo Acutis was born in London, before his parents set up home in Milan where he was to spend the rest of his short life. The Acutis family was nominally Catholic but not practicing: his Mother says that she went to Mass only for her First Holy Communion, Confirmation and her wedding but from a very young age Carlo seemed to have had a special capacity for friendship with God which took on a new depth once he began to receive the Eucharist. He became a daily Communicant, often spending a Holy Hour of adoration before or after Mass; he went to confession each week and he could write “the more often we receive the Eucharist, the more we will become like Jesus, so that on this earth we will have a foretaste of heaven”.

A witness records that Carlo: “managed to drag his parents to Mass every day. It was not the other way round: it was not his parents bringing the little boy to Mass, but it was he who managed to get himself to Mass and to convince others to receive communion daily”. Precocious yes, in the things of the spirit, but in others ways a thoroughly ordinary representative of his own generation. Carlo loved video games and was adept at Super Mario and Pokémon – this facility with his laptop led him to teach himself how to program and he set up websites cataloguing the world’s Eucharistic miracles and Marian apparitions,, to which he was adding up until his death. At the beatification ceremony it was said about him: “he was an ordinary boy, simple, spontaneous, likeable – he loved nature and animals, he played football, he had many friends of his own age, he was attracted by modern means of communication to transmit the Gospel, to communicate values and beauty”.

ShareLife 2020

Helping Heal Addictions

“These uncertain times are especially difficult for our addiction clients who already face isolation, food and housing insecurities, and struggle with mental wellness,” reports St. Michael’s Homes, a ShareLife-funded agency. “We suspect the need will continue to increase throughout the pandemic and into a post-Covid environment.”

Your gift to ShareLife ensures St. Michael’s Homes can continue to help people overcome addiction, as demand for their programs grows.

This weekend is ShareLife Sunday and the final day to make your donation to our parish campaign. If you give by the end of the weekend, you can double the impact of your donation. A generous donor is matching gifts up to $500,000. Please give during the special collection or anytime using the ShareLife envelopes in the pews. You can also give securely online at sharelife.org/donate

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER GROUP

Reflections from the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalkska

Pray as much as you can for the dying. By your entreaties, obtain for them trust in My mercy, because they have most need of trust, and have it the least. Be assured that the grace of eternal salvation for certain souls in their final moment depends on your prayer” (Diary, 1777).

Prayer of St. Gertrude for the Souls in Purgatory
Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.
