THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

On the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed

(All Souls Day), we not only remember the dead, but we apply our efforts, through prayer, almsgiving, and the Mass, to their release from Purgatory. Praying for the dead is a Christian obligation and this custom dates back before Christ, as far as 2 Maccabees. During the entire month of November lists of names of those to be remembered are placed by the altar on which the sacrifice of the mass is offered.

There are two plenary indulgences attached to All Souls Day, one for visiting a church and another for visiting a cemetery. The plenary indulgence for visiting a cemetery can also be obtained every day from November 1-8, and, as a partial indulgence, on any day of the year. While the actions are performed by the living, the merits of the indulgences are applicable only to the souls in Purgatory.

To acquire a plenary indulgence it is necessary the following three conditions be fulfilled several days before or after the visit:

- † Sacramental Confession
- † Eucharistic communion,
- † Prayer for the intention of the Holy Father.

Tuesday Nov 04, St. Charles Borromeo lived during the time of the Protestant Reformation, and had a hand in the reform of the whole Church during the final years of the Council of Trent. The religious and moral picture at the time was poor and he initiated regulations on the bishops and other clergy to give a good example and convert the people to the apostolic spirit. When the civil authorities fled at the height of the plague and famine of 1576, he stayed in the city, where he ministered to the sick and the dying, helping those in want.

From MESSAGE FOR MILLENNIUM OF ALL SOULS' DAY ~ Pope John Paul II

In praying for the dead, the Church above all contemplates the mystery of the Resurrection of Christ, who obtains salvation and eternal life for us through his Cross. Our hope is founded on Christ's sacrifice. His Resurrection inaugurates the "end of the times". The belief in eternal life which we profess in the Creed is an invitation to the joyful hope of seeing God face to face. To believe in the resurrection of the flesh is to recognize that there is a final end, an ultimate goal for all human life, "which so satisfies man's appetite that nothing else is left for him to desire".

Let us also remember that the Mystical Body of Christ is waiting to be reunited at the end of history, when all its members will be in perfect beatitude and God will be all in all. In fact, the Church hopes for the eternal salvation of all her children and of all mankind. "We believe that the Church is necessary to salvation, for Christ is the one mediator and way of salvation and he becomes present to us in his Body which is the Church, but the divine design of salvation embraces all men. Those indeed who are in ignorance of Christ's Gospel and of his Church through no fault of their own, who search for God in sincerity of heart, and who, acting according to conscience, strive under the influence of grace to fulfill his will, belong to his people, even though in a way we cannot see, and can obtain eternal salvation. Their number is known only to God".

The prayers of intercession and petition which the Church never ceases to raise to God have great value. They are "characteristic of a heart attuned to God's mercy". The Lord always lets himself be moved by his children's supplications, for he is the God of the living. During the Eucharist, through the general intercessions and the Memento for the dead, the assembled community presents to the Father of all mercies those who have died, so that through the trial of purgatory they will be purified, if necessary and attain eternal joy. In entrusting them to the Lord we recognize our solidarity with them and share in their salvation in this wondrous mystery of the communion of saints.
