ST. ANDREW THE APOSTLE

St. Andrew (also known as Simon bar-Jonah) like his brother St. Peter was also a fisherman from Galilee and was one of Jesus' closest disciples. Andrew is a Greek not Hebrew name so this indicates a certain cultural openness in Galilee, to the Greek language and culture.

Because he followed Jesus before St. Peter and the others, he is called the Protoklete or "First Called" apostle. After Pentecost we know that Peter travelled from Jerusalem through Antioch and reached Rome to exercise his universal mission; Andrew, instead, was the Apostle of the Greek world. So it is that in life and in death they appear as true brothers -- a brotherhood that is symbolically expressed in the special reciprocal relations of the See of Rome and of Constantinople, which are truly Sister Churches.

CHILDREN'S ADVENT WREATH PARTY

Our Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Women's League are inviting children 12 and under to make an advent wreath and Christmas ornaments for the family. Have your pictures taken with Santa.

Date: Saturday December 2 at 2:00 pm in the Parish Hall

Cost: New unwrapped gift, for a child in need.

A donation of $5 per family is suggested to help offset costs. If you are planning on attending, please stop by the parish office and register to ensure we have enough supplies for each family.

ST. JOSEPH DONATION ENVELOPES

For 2018 are in the parish hall. Please pick yours up as soon as possible. Also write your name on your envelope for the month of January.

CHRIST THE KING SUNDAY

Pope Pius XI instituted The Feast of Christ the King in 1925 for the universal church, in his encyclical Quas Primas. He connected the increasing denial of Christ as king to the rise of secularism throughout much of Europe. At the time of Quas Primas, many Christians (including Catholics) began to doubt Christ's authority and existence, as well as the Church's power to continue Christ's authority.

Pius XI, and the rest of the Christian world, witnessed the rise of non-Christian (or nominally Christian) dictatorships in Europe, and saw Catholics being taken in by these earthly leaders. These dictators often attempted to assert authority over the Church. Just as the Feast of Corpus Christi was instituted when devotion to the Eucharist was at a low point, the Feast of Christ the King was instituted during a time when respect for Christ and the Church was waning, when the feast was needed most.

Pius hoped the institution of the feast would have various effects. They were:

1. That nations would see that the Church has the right to freedom, and immunity from the state (Quas Primas, 32).
2. That leaders and nations would see that they are bound to give respect to Christ (Quas Primas, 31).
3. That the faithful would gain strength and courage from the celebration of the feast, as we are reminded that Christ must reign in our hearts, minds, wills, and bodies (Quas Primas, 33).

Today, the same distrust of authority exists, although the problem has gotten worse. Individualism has been embraced to such an extreme, that for many, the only authority is the individual self. The idea of Christ as ruler is rejected in such a strongly individualistic system. Also, many balk at the idea of kings and queens, believing them to be antiquated and possibly oppressive. Some even reject the titles of "lord" and "king" for Christ because they believe that such titles are borrowed from oppressive systems of government. However true these statements might be (some kings have been oppressive), these individuals miss the point: Christ's kingship is one of humility and service. Jesus said: "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to become great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mark 10:42-45).

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER GROUP

Prayer Meetings every Wednesday at 7 p.m. – Parish Hall

HOLY MASS WITH HEALING PRAYERS

Wednesday, January 24, 2018 at 7 p.m. in the Church.

Celebrant: Rev. Fr. Ben St. Croix

A man suffering from a dreaded skin disease came to Jesus and said “If you wish, you can make me clean”. Jesus was filled with pity, and reached out and touched him.

“I do want to,” he answered, “Be clean!” (Mark 1:40 and 41)

Does Jesus love us today, any less than he loved this man? Of course not! Jesus always wants to help us, just as any good father wants to help his children. So come and join us, let us step out in faith and place our trust in our Heavenly Father.

ALL ARE WELCOME!
