THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Monday Nov 10, St. Leo the Great was a dedicated Pope with a strong conviction of the importance of the Bishop of Rome and of the Church as the ongoing sign of Christ's presence in the world. He worked at length to control the heresies of Pelagianism and Manichaeism and with doctrinal controversy in the Eastern Church. When Attila with his Huns broke into Italy Leo went out boldly to meet him, and prevailed on him to turn back. Two years later the city fell a prey to the Vandals; and Leo saved it from destruction. He died A. D. 461, having ruled the Church twenty years.

Tuesday Nov 11, St. Martin of Tours when young he met a starving man begging alms at the city gates. Moved by deep compassion, he tore his cloak in two and gave half to the beggar. The next night, he had a dream in which he saw Jesus wearing the half of the cloak he'd given away, surrounded by angels. Our Lord asked him to look at it and to see if he recognized it. He did, of course, and realized that he must convert and devote his life to Christ. He then moved on and lived his life as a hermit. Martin then lived in the city of Tours, where he became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers and together they established a monastery. In 371 Martin was appointed by the will of the people as the bishop of Tours.

Wednesday Nov 12, St. Josaphat (1580-1623). Born in Lithuania, elected Catholic archbishop of Polotsk (present Belarus). He was caught in a battle between Catholic and Orthodox and criticized and opposed by both: by the Orthodox for being Catholic and by the Latins for being Byzantine. He held firmly to Catholic unity against the Orthodox and just as firmly to Byzantine rights against the Latins who saw unity only in Latin terms and would suppress Byzantine traditions in the name of Catholic unity. On Nov 12, a mob broke into the house where he was staying, shouting hatred and violence. Confronting them, he was struck in the head and then shot. His mangled body was dragged out and thrown into the river.

Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome

From homily of BENEDICT XVI

Sunday November 9, 2008

The Lateran Basilica was the first to be built after the Edict of the Emperor Constantine who, in 313, conceded to Christians the freedom to practice their religion and gave the ancient estate of the Laterani family to the Church.

Today's feast celebrates an ever current mystery: that God desires to build himself a spiritual temple in the world, a community that adores him in spirit and truth. But this occasion reminds us also of the importance of the concrete buildings in which the community gathers together to celebrate God's praises. Every community therefore has the duty to carefully guard their holy structures, which constitute a precious religious and historical patrimony. For this we invoke the intercession of Mary Most Holy, so that she might help us to become, like her, a "house of God", living temple of his love.

The Word of God during this Solemnity recalls an essential truth: the stone temple is the symbol of the living Church, the Christian community, that the Apostles Peter and Paul had, in their Letters, already understood as a "spiritual building", constructed by God with the "living stones" that are the Christians, upon the one foundation that is Jesus Christ, who is in turn compared to the "cornerstone". "Brethren,... you are God's building", St Paul writes, and he adds, "God's temple is holy, and you are that temple". The beauty and the harmony of churches, destined to render praise to God, invites us human beings too, though limited and sinful, to convert ourselves to form a "cosmos", a well-ordered construction, in close communion with Jesus, who is the true Holy of Holies. This reaches its culmination in the Eucharistic liturgy, in which the "ecclesia" that is, the community of baptized finds itself again united to listen to the Word of God and nourish itself on the Body and Blood of Christ. Gathered around this twofold table, the Church of living stones builds herself up in truth and in love and is moulded interiorly by the Holy Spirit, transforming herself into what she receives, conforming herself ever more to her Lord Jesus Christ. She herself, if she lives in sincere and fraternal unity, thus becomes a spiritual sacrifice pleasing to God.

SHEPHERDS' TRUST

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity.

The Shepherds' Trust collection will take place in all parishes in the Archdiocese during the weekend of November 15/16. Envelopes will be distributed the weekend of November 8/9. This fund does more than just support our priest's in their twilight years; it represents a very tangible gesture of thanks for the blessings we have received. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
