SAINTS FUN FACTS

SAINTE MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL, DEFEND US IN THE DAY OF BATTLE; BE OUR SAFEGUARD AGAINST THE WICKEDNESS AND SNARES OF THE DEVIL. MAY GOD REBUKE HIM, WE HUMBLY PRAY, AND DO YOU, O PRINCE OF THE HEAVENLY HOST, BY THE POWER OF GOD, CAST INTO HELL, SATAN AND ALL THE OTHER EVIL SPIRITS, WHO PROWL THROUGH THE WORLD, SEEKING THE RUIN OF SOULS!
AMEN!!

POPE LEO XIII PENNED THIS PRAYER IN 1884 IMMEDIATELY AFTER BEING ALLOWED BY GOD TO HEAR A CONVERSATION BETWEEN OUR LORD AND THE DEVIL.

HOLINESS DEMANDS A CONSTANT EFFORT

The saints are not a restricted caste of elect but a crowd without number toward which we are exhorted to lift our eyes. Among this multitude are not only the officially recognized saints but the baptized of every age and nation who have sought to accomplish the divine will with love and fidelity. Many there are whose faces and names we do not know but with the eyes of faith we see them shine like stars full of glory in the divine firmament.

The Church celebrates her dignity as "mother of the saints, image of the eternal city", and manifests her beauty as immaculate bride of Christ, the source and exemplar of all holiness. She does not lack for riotous and indeed rebellious children, but it is in the saints that she recognizes her characteristic traits and precisely in them she savors her deepest joy. The author of the Apocalypse describes "a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people and tongue" (Rev 7:9). This people comprise the saints of the Old Testament, those of the New Testament, and the saints of the ages that followed, and finally the witnesses of Christ in our own time. What was common to them was the will to incarnate the Gospel in their existence through the impulse of the Holy Spirit, who is the eternal giver of life of the people of God.

Gazing upon the luminous examples of the saints the great desire to be like the saints is awakened in us; happy to live near to God, in his light, in the great family of the friends of God. Being a saint means living close to God, living in his family. But how can we become saints, friends of God? An initial response to this question is this: To be saints it is not necessary to perform extraordinary deeds and works, nor is it necessary to possess exceptional charisms. But this only tells us what sainthood is not. The positive answer is that to become a saint it is above all necessary to listen to Jesus and then to follow him and not lose heart in the face of difficulties. Whoever entrusts himself to him and loves him with sincerity, will die to himself as the grain of wheat buried in the earth. The experience of the Church demonstrates that, although they take different paths, all forms of holiness must always pass through the way of the cross, the way of self-denial.

The biographies of the saints depict men and women who, always docile to divine designs, sometimes endured indescribable sufferings, persecutions and martyrdom. They persevered in their task. "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress, they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (Rev 7:14). Their names are written in the book of life - paradise is their eternal abode. The example of the saints encourages us to follow in their footsteps, to experience the joy of those who entrust themselves to God, because the only cause of sadness is to live far from him. Holiness demands a constant effort but it is possible for all since it is not just the work of man but is above all a gift of God, who is thrice holy (Isaiah 6:3).

What is Truth ? In today’s culture, the very existence of truth is under attack – many argue that faith and reason are incompatible and truth is relative. Divisions within Christianity makes one wonder, “Is Catholicism just one of the many or does it have a unique claim to ‘Truth?’” How and where do we find truth in a world that sends the message that it is negotiable? Join Dr. David Anders, Jennifer Fulwiler, Trent Horn, Steve Weidenkopf & Bishop Gerard Bergie and explore ‘Truth’ and practical ways to share this with family and friends. November 18
