WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

October 20

“How I long to find the right words to stir up enthusiasm for a new chapter of evangelization full of fervour, joy, generosity, courage, boundless love and attraction! Yet I realize that no words of encouragement will be enough unless the fire of the Holy Spirit burns in our hearts”

~ Pope Francis, (Evangelii Gaudium, 261)

FEAST OF THE WEEK

St. Pope John Paul II

O God, who are rich in mercy and who willed that Saint John Paul the Second should preside as Pope over your universal Church, grant, we pray, that instructed by his teaching, we may open our hearts to the saving grace of Christ, the sole Redeemer of mankind.

Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

St. Pope John Paul II Pray for Us!

From Father Paul

DON'T GIVE UP PRAYING

Our Lord gives a very graphic image of persistence in prayer in the Gospel today: He talks about a woman with a claim against her neighbour who doesn't quit until she gets what she wants from an unjust judge who is looking for an easy life.

Of course, Our Lord is not saying that this is how things should be. He is using this image to show that if we can get things we are entitled to by sheer perseverance, and from an unjust judge—how much more can we hope to get what we need from a loving and just Father, God our Lord? However, Our Lord wants us to understand that, even though God is just, and loves us so much that He wants to give us what is necessary for our good, nevertheless, we too, like the woman in His image, must expect to be persistent in making our prayers to Him even for what is good.

Why should this be? God our Father and His Son, Our Lord, wants us to pray not just to get what we want from them but because praying itself is a good thing. Unlike the case of the woman and the unjust judge, where not giving up is only the means to the end she wants, prayer is totally unlike that. Prayer is the expression and the means of deepening a relationship with Our Lord, and with our heavenly Father. In his Letter to the Ephesians (ch. 6), St. Paul tells us that we should pray at all times. This is exactly what Our Lord means us to learn from this Gospel passage.

St John Henry Newman, canonized just last week, taught about the importance of continuous prayer. He pointed out that prayer is like good health—you cannot be in it one moment and not in it the next. Health is a state of being. One can fall out of it, true, but one cannot fall into good health. Health is something that needs fostering and protection. It should never be taken for granted. A religious person, says St John Henry, is one who prays, and prays constantly. Simply praying when we need something is not sufficient. We must pray at all times and not only for the things that we need, but to God's glory and for the needs of all the Church and those who ask for our prayerful support.
