CHILD DIGNITY IN THE DIGITAL WORLD

The digital world has changed the way we live and communicate. Even now, it is in some sense changing our very way of thinking and of being, and profoundly influencing the perception of our possibilities and our identity.

We know that minors are presently more than a quarter of the over 3 billion users of the internet; this means that over 800 million minors are navigating the internet. What do they find? And how are they regarded by those who exercise various kinds of influence over the net? The net has its dark side where evil finds ever new, effective and pervasive ways to act and to expand. The spread of printed pornography in the past was a relatively small phenomenon compared to the proliferation of pornography on the net. We must not underestimate the harm done to minors by these phenomena. The difficulty of countering them can lead us to be tempted to say: "Really, the situation is not so bad as all that..." But the progress of neurobiology, psychology and psychiatry have brought to light the profound impact of violent and sexual images on the impressionable minds of children, the psychological problems that emerge as they grow older, the dependent behaviours and situations, and genuine enslavement that result from a steady diet of provocative or violent images. These problems will surely have a serious and life-long effect on today's children.

But we can also underestimate or overlook the extent that they are also problems for adults. The spread of ever more extreme pornography and other improper uses of the net not only causes disorders, dependencies and grave harm among adults, but also has a real impact on the way we view love and relations between the sexes. We would be seriously deluding ourselves were we to think that a society where an abnormal consumption of internet sex is rampant among adults could be capable of effectively protecting minors.

In recent years the Church has come to acknowledge her own failures in providing for the protection of children: extremely grave facts have come to light, for which we have to accept our responsibility before God, before the victims and before public opinion. For this very reason, as a result of these painful experiences and the skills gained in the process of conversion and purification, the Church today feels especially bound to work strenuously and with foresight for the protection of minors and their dignity, not only within her own ranks, but in society as a whole and throughout the world.

~ Condensed from the address of His Holiness Pope Francis to the participants in the congress on "CHILD DIGNITY IN THE DIGITAL WORLD" Clementine Hall Friday, 6 October 2017

WATCH on formed.org Modern Media

Using modern media can either hinder our ability to discern God's voice in the silence of the heart, or it can be a tool for learning and evangelization. This study looks at modern media from a Christian perspective, dives into the unprecedented influence it has on our lives, and gives us some practical tools to live vibrant Christian lives in a media-saturated culture. (2 - 2 part sessions).

FEATURED ON FORMED.ORG

Watch: Pope John Paul II. This epic film follows Karol Wojtyla's journey from his youth in Poland through his late days on the Chair of St. Peter. It explores his life behind the scenes: how he touched millions of people, changed the face of the Church and the world, and how he defended the dignity of mankind. (2 hrs 53 min).

Listen: RELATIVISM: DO YOU KNOW HOW IT IS AFFECTING YOU? (65 Min). Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI considered moral relativism to be the most dangerous dictatorship existing in the world today. This offers a much-needed perspective on the current status quo of morality.

Read: Rome Sweet Home. Scott Hahn was a Presbyterian minister, the top student in his seminary class, a brilliant Scripture scholar, and militantly anti-Catholic ... until he reluctantly began to discover that his "enemy" had all the right answers...

OUR SPECIAL UPCOMING SERVICES: ONE-DAY ADVENT RETREAT

"OUR JOURNEY TO BETHLEHEM". Preacher:

Rev. Fr. Matthias Amuzu, Spiritual Director (CCRC)
Saturday, Nov 11– 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

The hidden treasures of the Christmas season are the rich liturgical celebrations. Reflecting on them before Christmas arrives help us enter into the spiritual atmosphere of Advent. "MAKE SPACE FOR GOD'S PROMISE" – Divine messengers inform Mary and Joseph of a rather big change in their lives. Are we ready to accept change in our life? "STRUGGLES AND HOPES" – story of Jacob's wrestling with the angel is a gateway into reflection on our own struggles. "THE JOURNEY" – we are each on a journey. When we see that it truly was God who became man, we can be open to the journey He invites us on to become like Him. Registrations: after Masses

Sat. Oct 28 & Sun. Oct 29 / Sat. Nov 4 & Sun. Nov 5
($10 - includes refreshments and lunch). ALL ARE WELCOME!
