THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Wednesday October 28, St. Jude, (Thaddaeus), brother of St. James the Less, the first bishop of Jerusalem, and a relative of Jesus; was one of the 12 Apostles of Jesus and author of an epistle to the Churches of the East, particularly the Jewish converts, directed against the heresies of the Simonians, Nicolaites, and Gnostics. At the Last Supper Jude asked Jesus why He would not manifest Himself to the whole world after His resurrection. Jude is the patron saint of desperate cases because his New Testament letter stresses that the faithful should persevere in the environment of harsh, difficult circumstances, just as their forefathers had done before them.

St. Simon "the Zealot" was also one of the 12 apostles of Jesus. Western tradition is that he preached in Egypt and then went to Persia with St. Jude, where both suffered martyrdom.

The Zealots were a Jewish sect that represented an extreme of Jewish nationalism. For them, the messianic promise of the Old Testament meant that the Jews were to be a free and independent nation. God alone was their king, and any payment of taxes to the Romans—the very domination of the Romans—was a blasphemy against God. They were chiefly responsible for the rebellion against Rome which ended in the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

MASS IN THE EXTRAORDINARY FORM

A Solemn High Mass in honour of:

All Souls of the Faithful Departed

Will be held HERE AT St Joseph Parish

The Mass will be celebrated according to the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite (Missal of 1962).

From POPE FRANCIS ANGELUS ADDRESS

November 2, 2014

The Church, a pilgrim in history, rejoices through the intercession of the saints and blessed who support her in the mission of proclaiming the Gospel; on the other, she, like Jesus, shares the tears of those who suffer the separation from loved ones, and like Him and through Him echoes thanks to the Father who has delivered us from the dominion of sin and death.

Many people visit the cemetery, which, as the word itself implies, is the "place of rest", as we wait for the final awakening. It is lovely to think that it will be Jesus who will awaken us. Jesus himself revealed that the death of the body is like a sleep from which he awakens us. With this faith we stop - even spiritually - at the graves of our loved ones, those who have loved us and have done good deeds for us. But today we are called to remember everyone, to remember everyone, even those who no one remembers. We remember the victims of war and violence; the many "little ones" of the world crushed by hunger and poverty. We remember the anonymous who rest in common graves. We remember our brothers and sisters killed because they are Christians; and those who sacrificed their lives to serve others. We especially entrust to the Lord, those who have left over the last year.

Church tradition has always urged prayer for the dead, in particular by offering the celebration of the Eucharist for them: it is the best spiritual help that we can give to their souls, particularly to the most abandoned ones. The foundation of prayers in suffrage of souls is in the communion of the Mystical Body. As the Second Vatican Council reiterates, "fully conscious of this communion of the whole Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, the pilgrim Church from the very first ages of the Christian religion has cultivated with great piety the memory of the dead" (Lumen Gentium, 50).
